KNOWLAND TALKS ON HARBOR

Solon Wires That the Oakland Waterfront Improvements Make Impression

House Committee Hears of What Is Being Done by This City

The Chamber of Commerce received a dispatch today from Congressman J. R. Knowland stating that he had appeared today before the House committee on rivers and harbors relative to the Oakland harbor matter, and had put before the committee what the city of Oakland was doing in the way of improvement on the water front and the work contemplated.

Knowland urged in view of the interest manifested by the city that the government should complete as speedily as possible the present project to meet the demands of commerce with the opening of the Panama canal. He also asked for the resurvey of the harbor with a new project to meet the future needs of the commerce of Oakland, Alameda and surrounding territory.

QUESTIONS ASKED.

The committee members asked many questions and seemed to be interested in the figures showing the growth of the city and the amount now being expended and contemplated by municipalities, and the commerce question.

Oakland harbor made a far better showing, Knowland said, than any other California harbor seeking appropriation. The matter was referred to the office of the chief of engineers. The engineers seem favorably disposed and Knowland thinks a satisfactory recommendation will be forthcoming.

Couple in Burning Hotel Cry for Help

Throw Out Blanket to Firemen, Drop Purp Into It and Descend Ladder.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—While flames were destroying the Oakdale Hotel in Austin today, a woman and a man appeared at a window on an upper floor and called to firemen for help. A moment later a blanket was thrown down by the man. Several firemen grasped the sides of the blanket and braced themselves to catch the body that was to fall into the improvised life net.

Suddenly out of the smoke that filled her room the woman's head appeared and she cried: "Hold tight, men." Then shew threw out her little white poodle dog. It landed safely. "Now put up a ladder and we'll come down," came the order from above, and the couple descended safely.

CARNEGIE AGAIN ON STAND

Declares Day of Competition Is at End Because Prices Cannot Be Fixed

Declares Partnership Insures Better Management Than Corporation Control

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Andrew Carnegie, continuing his testimony before the House steel trust committee today declared that the day of competition had passed because of the ability of manufacturers to fix and maintain prices.

"Men," he said, "have been able to sit down and agree to fix prices and maintain them."

"Do you believe that the situation today destroys competition?" he was asked.

"Certainly."

"That men in these corporations meet somewhere today to fix and maintain prices?"

"I think that is obvious."

Carnegie was asked if he agreed today with views he expressed two years ago urging government control of corporations and regulation of prices.

ADHERES TO VIEW.

"I still adhere to them," he answered. "I believe the government should regulate maximum prices."

"Don't you think it an unfortunate condition?"

"I think the time has arrived when that is necessary and I point to the interstate commerce commission, which has brought order, peace and justice out of chaos in the railroad business."

Representative Beall of Texas began questioning Carnegie.

"You were connected with the iron and steel business altogether for about forty years, were you not?" he asked.

"Yes, sir."

"You found it at the beginning a small business?"

"Yes, very small."

"And you left it a business dominating the business of the world?"

"Yes, in steel."

"Has there been the same grade of progress in the steel business since the U. S. Steel Corporation got hold of the industry?"

PARTNERSHIP BETTER.

"I don't believe that any corporation can manage a business like a partnership. When we were partners I felt that we could run around corporations. You take 35 young men interested in watching even a leak in a spigot and no corporation can compete with such an organization in any business. George Perkins came to me one day and said:

"'Mr. Carnegie, you once told me about your partnership organization and I thought it was foolish. Now I know you were right.'

"It is the same thing with the man who owns the land and tills. Take Iowa, for instance. When a young man I went to Iowa on a holiday. There I saw those beautiful farms, those homes of a triumphant democracy. Those young men owned their lands and their homes. Great Caesar! What can a big farming corporation do against such a condition as that?

"The man who owns the land is a man, the equal of any other man in a triumphant democracy. Why, I have

WOMEN ARE TRAPPED BY FIRE

Mrs. Arthur Wells Is Injured When Attempting to Rescue Infant Son

Neighbors Save Two, Who Are Caught on Sundeck by Flames

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Arthur M. Wells, wife of a civil engineer on the Yosemite Railroad; Miss Avis Wells, her sister-in-law, and her two young sons, Kenneth, aged 2 years, and Lester, aged 3 months, were trapped in a burning dwelling at 3033 Benvenue avenue this morning and all had a narrow escape from being burned to death.

In attempting to go through the flames up the stairway to rescue her infant son, Mrs. Wells received severe burns on her right hand. Meanwhile her sister-in-law, who was asleep upstairs, awakened, and carrying the infant to a sundeck at the rear of the house, was rescued by Dr. C. J. Fredericks and other neighbors.

The fire originated from a hot blast heating stove near the stairway of the first floor of the story and a half cottage. After starting the fire in the stove Mrs. Wells went upstairs to complete dressing and on returning brought her son Kenneth with her. She discovered the fire, but was at that time unable to make her way through the flames of the burning stairway to the upper floor. Her screams awakened her sister-in-law. Mrs. Wells was able to escape through a doorway on the first floor, carrying her 2-year-old son.

The house, according to Mrs. Wells, was of the fire-trap variety, with burlap covering the walls. The building was consumed by the time the fire department arrived.

Wells was absent from his home. The family has found temporary shelter with friends at 2217 Roosevelt avenue.

Franklin to Reveal Names of 'Higher-Ups' in Bribery Case, Is Report

Witness Declares Conners Told Him of the Alleged Dynamite Plot

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Bert H. Franklin, the detective charged with having bribed or attempted to bribe a juror and a venireman in the McNamara trial, was closeted for more than an hour today with W. Joseph Ford, deputy district attorney, who has charge of the county grand jury investigation. The appearance of Franklin in the district attorney's office gave rise to renewed reports that the detective soon would take action to relieve himself of the criminal proceedings now pending against him in the Superior Court and at the same time reveal the "higher-ups" suspected of having provided a fund of $20,000 to corrupt jurors drawn to try the confessed murderer and dynamiter, [illegible] a life sentence in San Quentin prison.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—"Conners told me that Gunrey, Misner, himself, Bender, Maple and Charles Stevens planned to dynamite the hall of records, and that he with Bender and Maple were told to do the work."

This statement by Mansell Parks was made today in the trial of Bert Conners, charged with conspiracy to destroy the county building.

Confronted by a strong case, provided the evidence adduced by the state can withstand attack, attorneys for Conners made a determined onslaught today upon the testimony of Parks, the state's second star witness, who was put under cross-examination. As the case now stands, the alleged facts adduced by the state against Conners are:

That Joseph Bishop, the state's other star witness, saw Conners take dynamite from the basement of the Labor temple on the night of September 8, 1910.

That Mansell Parks heard Conners say he intended to blow up the hall of records.

That Conners was met in the hall of records by a policeman shortly after midnight on the morning of September 8, 1910, a few hours before the dynamite was found and that he attacked the officer, for which he was arrested, but later released. The policeman attacked rendered this testimony a few days ago.

OTHERS KNEW OF PLOT.

According to Parks, others besides Conners and Maple and Bender, the prisoners and co-defendants, had knowledge of the alleged conspiracy to destroy the county building and a photographic copy of a letter alleged to have been addressed to George Gunrey, a prominent official in the Structural Iron Workers Union, by Conners, in which the latter asks for money with which to "beat it out of the country" is an exhibit in the case today.

When Bishop was under cross-examination the attorneys for the defense forced an admission that he was in the employ of the county detective bureau. The same admission was drawn from Parks today, and the defense, by its questions, inaicated that it would make a vigorous effort to convince the jury that the testimony of two men is worthless because they were detectives who found what they were paid to find.

The declaration of Parks, made on re-direct examination at the morning session of court was elicited by Deputy District Attorney Horton, who said yesterday he expected to connect many labor union leaders with the alleged plot to destroy the hall of records.

Gunrey is the man whose name was

CLEMENCY DENIED BY JOHNSON

Vain Appeal Made to Save the Life of Convicted Murderer

Society Opposed to Hanging Takes Up the Case With the Governor

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—That Mark A. Wilkins, condemned to death at San Quentin for the murder of his woman consort in Oakland, will hang tomorrow at the penitentiary was assured today when Governor Johnson indicated that further clemency would not be extended to Wilkins.

Wilkins has been reprieved from time to time during the last year, while the governor was investigating the claims for clemency on behalf of the condemned man.

FINAL APPEAL.

Attorney Burton J. Wyman returned this morning from Sacramento, where he had another conference yesterday with Governor Johnson with reference to the case of Mark A. Wilkins, who will be hanged at San Quentin tomorow morning at 10 o'clock for the murder of Vernie Carmen.

Attorneys Wyman and Clinton G. Dodge, together with Secretary J. H. Young of the Anti-Capital Punishment League and Warden Hoyle of San Quentin, have worked to secure a commutation of sentence since last February, when Wilkins appeared before Superior Judge William H. Waste to hear the judgment in his case reaffirmed after the Supreme Court had denied the prisoner another trial. Since then Governor Johnson has granted Wilkins thirteen respites, the last one being ordered about a month ago.

SUICIDE THEORY.

The conference between Attorney Wyman and the governor yesterday failed to develop anything favorable for Wilkins. Wyman presented to the governor two affidavits showing that to a woman who was a neighbor Vernie Carmen had stated before her death that she was tired of life and had every appearance of suffering from melancholia, these documents being intended to strengthen the theory of many and the claim of Wilkins that the woman committed suicide.

The governor gave Wyman a very courteous hearing, but as they parted he told his caller that he could not hold out any hope that Wilkins would escape the hangman's noose tomorrow.

Attorney Wyman made a last appeal to the governor in behalf of Wilkins today in a letter that will reach him this evening.

WIRE TO GOVERNOR.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Having wired Governor Johnson yesterday requesting him to take the action he did in reprieving several prisoners condemned to die in San Quentin prison tomorrow, Senator Leslie

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Out of one prison doorway into another is the fate that seems to await Fred Clifford, a former Southern Pacific agent at Burbank, Cal. Hewitt, Henry S. Cahn, Rev. Reynold Blight of the Los Angeles Fellowship, Rev. Baker P. Lee of Christ Episcopal Church and a number of other men launched today a movement to invoke a referendum on the question of abolishing capital punishment in California.

In their message the foes of death as a punishment for capital crimes asked the governor to continue reprieving condemned men until the people of the state have registered their will on whether they want prisoners hanged or otherwise legally slain in this state. It was said that while the governor could not say now that he favored the abolition of capital punishment, he would lend his aid to any movement to put the question up to the people.

Blight declared that hanging is a survival of barbarism and that the people of California would cleanse the state of the blot if given the opportuntiy. The petition for a referendum on the question abolishing capital punishment is being prepared for circulation today.

ISABELLE FLETCHER IS SUED HUSBAND ALSO WANTS DIVORCE

MISS ISABELLE FLETCHER, whose divorced husband has decided that he also wants a divorce.

Attorney Louis P. Boardman Begins Fight to Secure a Decree

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Isabelle Fletcher Boardman, a former leading lady at Ye Liberty Theater in Oakland, who is well known in the theatrical profession as a clever emotional interpreter of "Cleopatra," "Zaza" and other strenuous roles, figured in a counter divorce suit filed here late yesterday by Louis P. Boardman, the San Francisco attorney, from whom she secured an interlocutory decree last September to an Oakland court on the grounds of non-support.

Boardman seeks to have the decree set aside on a technicality, and instituted a suit on his own account yesterday, in which he alleged that he had been deserted by his wife in April, 1910, when she refused longer to live with him. Philip C. Boardman, a brother, represented him at the first trial, and immediately after the papers were filed the plaintiff boarded a train for New York.

THIRD DIVORCE SUIT.

The present suit filed will bring Isabelle Fletcher into the divorce court for the third time during her theatrical career. She divorced her former husband, an actor, on the grounds of having made a mistake, and took the same initiative in her present marital woes.

Among the friends of the couple it is rumored that Miss Fletcher takes her husband's action as a matter of little consequence. She has stated that she is perfectly willing that Boardman should get a divorce if he wants it, although it will not interfere with her decree becoming final in September. All the property rights were settled by the contending parties in the first proceeding, and the actress made no apeal for alimony. Miss Fletcher is quoted with having said: "Well, if it satisfies his pride to gain a judgment, he can have it."

The technicality on which Boardman bases his present action is the exception he has taken to the divorce allowed the actress, maintaining that Superior Judge T. W. Harris was disqualified from presiding at the proceedings because of his distant relationship with Clarence Reed, who was associate counsel for Miss Fletcher. Boardman also has taken exception to divorce because he considered that his wife was not a legal resident of California at the time of the proceedings. Miss Fletcher was playing an engagement in Vancouver, B. C., at the time.

Although Miss Fletcher claimed she had been compelled to seek the stage as a livelihood, in the complaint filed by Boardman yesterday he referred to the property rights as having been settled between himself and wife. He is said to have realty holdings in San Francisco, Santa Cruz and Yuma, and shortly after the divorce was granted he was awarded a $10,000 fee by the ruling of a magistrate for his services rendered in a case in the Probate Court in Los Angeles.

The Boardmans were married in Portland, Or., May 18, 1909, and Mrs. Boardman resumed her stage career in the following August because of her husband's financial difficulties, she said in her testimony in court. Now Boardman claims that Miss Fletcher deserted him in April, 1910, within a year after the marriage and four months previous to her resuming her profession. Mrs. Boardman claims that all the money she received from her husband was $30, which he gave her on their honeymoon trip to Vancouver.

TELLS OF POWER.

Carnegie gave the committee several illustrations of his power to get business when he was in the steel market.

"Why take rails for instance," he continued. "I had many close friends in the railroad business. I remember once the Union Pacific had asked bids for 70,000 tons of rails and the bids were to be opened at Omaha. All my competitors were out there. I walked over to Sidney Dillon, of the Union Pacific, in New York. I had done the Union Pacific a favor once; I got them a loan of something like $600,000 in Philadelphia and they elected me and George M. Pullman directors.

"I told Dillon about the bids and asked him if the Carnegie rails were satisfactory. He said they were.

"I said 'I want the Union Pacific to do business with me and I'll give you the lowest price.'

"He said, 'all right, Carnegie,' and I got the 70,000 ton contract. Now what is the use of a corporation fighting against such influence as that?"

ACCUSED ROBBER CLOSE PRISONER

Charles Dean Is Arraigned On Statutory Charge; Bail Fixed at $1000.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Charles Dean, under arrest as one of the men who robbed the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster, Canada, was arraigned before Police Judge Rose today on a charge growing out of his association with Mrs. Minna Grifin of Tacoma. Trial was set for January 19, and bail fixed at $1000. Dean was arraigned as C. W. Howard, which he asserted was his true name.

The arraignment on the statutory charge was a formality imposed by the law and was taken to prevent habeas corpus proceedings. Attorney Frank Allender, who represented the prisoner, said that although his client had more than $1000 in cash he would not give bail as he knew he would be immediately re-arrested on some other charge so that the authorities could hold him pending the arrival of Canadian officers.

City detectives said today that the woman who lived here with Dean and disappeared with her two daughters, Tuesday night, had been arrested by operatives of the agency which had been on the trail of the bank robbers. This report, however, was not confirmed.

ACCUSED MEN LEAVE FOR SOUTH

brought in connection with the letter introduced photographically in evidence yesterday in which Conners asked for money with which to get out of the country. The Misner, named by Parks, is E. A. Misner, an official of the organized mechanics, who walked out of the Harriman railroad shops last year.

IN SAN QUENTIN.

Stevens' first name is Charles. He is now serving a two-year term in San Quentin for having beaten a strike-breaker employed by the Llewellyn Iron Works after the union men struck.

Parks declared that these men were on the iron workers strike committee and that Conners' information was given to him on May 1, when he met the prisoner on the way to Needles.

Parks also brought the name of J. E. Timmons, local chief of the Structural Iron Workers Union, into the case. He said that when he delivered the letter from Conners to Gunrey asking for "get-away" money, Timmons was with Gunrey. Next day Parks said he saw Gunrey again and the latter told him to tell Conners he (Gunrey) would have to see Timmons about it. Timmons, Parks added, was out of town at the time and then Gunrey, he said, told him he would have to see Misner or E. J. Hendricks, president of the Los Angeles Labor Council.

OTHER MEETINGS.

Parks also testified that others attending meetings at which Gunrey, Misner, Stevens, Conners, Maple and Bender were said to have planned the destruction of the Hall of Records, were C. L. Mars and Aber D. Haven, iron workers.

Parks declared he heard the men dismussing the dynamiting of the county structure and also their talk about blowing up an annex to a hotel which was constructed by non-union men.

"Conners told me that Misner would have a knife stuck in his (Conners') back if he told about the Hall of Records job," said Parks.

Parks told of a meeting between Conners and Gunrey following the sending of the letter which figured in yesterday's testimony. It seems Parks said that the meeting was unsatisfactory to Conners.

"Conners told me of a plan he had for dynamiting the safe in the labor temple in order to get money," Parks went on. "He said there was $35,000 or $40,000 in the safe.

HAD THE DYNAMITE.

"He told me he had twelve sticks of dynamite and enough fuse but no caps. He planned to place the dynamite on the top of the safe. I told him that if he dynamited the safe he would destroy the temple. He said, 'to hell with the temple.'

"Conners also stated that he did not have to go to work for money if he wanted to act 'dirty'. He said he knew enough about other union men to send them to hell or to the penitentiary if he wanted to tell it.

"Later, on May 18, 1911, Conners wrote a letter to Hendricks. He gave it to me to deliver. I made a copy of it. It read: 'Please meet me somewhere as I want that ticket and can't come near the temple.'

"I saw Hendricks tear the letter up," added Parks.

Parks also said that he saw Hendricks meet Conners and watched the two as they went into a local steamship office.

"Later," Parks continued, "Conners told me that he had bought a ticket for Grays Harbor and was going to sail on the steamer Norwood.

Conners was arrested in the steamship office May 19, 1911. Parks was arrested with him but released when it became known that he was a detective.

TVEITMOE TO APPEAR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Olaf Tveitmoe, secretary-treasurer of the California State Building Trades Council, and Anton Johannsen, organizer for the State Building Trades, will leave for Los Angeles tonight to appear before the Federal court tomorrow.

They were indicted and arrested in Los Angeles December 30 on charges of complicity in a national dynamiting conspiracy, which the federal government is investigating in connection with the revelations made in the McNamara case. E. A. Clancy, arrested the same day on the same charges, is ill at his home here and unable to leave.

Burns Not Guilty, Court Indicates

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 11.—Detective Wm. J. Burns was not guilty of the crime of kidnaping when he captured John J. McNamara here and took him to California last April. Judge Anderson indicated today that such would be his ruling. The Judge said the case against Burns was without merit.

Argument on the kidnaping charge was begun today. The action came up on Detective Burns' petition in a habeas corpus proceeding for permanent release from an indictment by the Marion County grand jury charging him with kidnaping.

W. A. Ketcham, former attorney general of Indiana, counsel for Burns, contended all the requirements of the federal laws regulating extradition were complied with and said the indictment against Burns was based on provisions of the Indiana law which imposed restrictions not contemplated by the federal statutes. Burns was unable to appear, having been delayed on a train.

QUOTES CONSTITUTION.

Ketcham argued that the United States Constitution and the act of Congress governing extradition required only that the governor of a state in honoring a requisition should be satisfied that the person arrested was the person named in the requisition as the fugitive. The Indiana statute, requiring that the person arrested should be taken before a court for identification, was a burden on the federal constitution and law.

"According to the Indiana statute," said Ketcham, "John J. McNamara could not have gone to California, arranged for an explosion, returned to Indiana five days before the explosion and be immune from an extradition because he was not in California at the moment the explosion occurred. Having made a hame run, could not be brought to the bar of justice."

John W. Holtzman, appearing for the sheriff of the county, argued that the Indiana statute was only in aid of the federal law and therefore was constitutional. He believed the courts gradually were broadening in interpretiaion.

"You don't agree, then, with Governor Marshall of Indiana," said Judge Anderson, "who, according to the newspapers, says the courts are 200 years behind the times?"

"I won't commit myself," returned Holtzman, "but the governor is in competition with former Senator Beveridge, who declares the Sherman law is 300 years behind the times."

COURT'S COMMENTS.

Judge Anderson commented that in his opinion Congress did not leave to the Indiana legislature the authority to take from the governor and give to a county court the power to put into effect an extradition warrant. The indictment against Burns and James Hosick charges that McNamara was not given legal hearing in court before he was transported to California.

Because Burns could not reach Indianapolis until Friday afternoon, today Judge Anderson withheld the formal record of his decision until that time. He stated to the attorneys, however, that the fact alone that McNamara had pleaded guilty in California wiped away any faults, if such there were, as to the manner in which the dynamiter had been taken out of the state. He said he did not wish to be understood as holding that Burns violated any reasons whatever in taking McNamara.

Judge Anderson described Burns as "a man who has done signal service for his country," and said it was improper that an indictment and a threat of having to go to the penitentiary should stand against him.

It is believed that the court's attitude toward Burns also will apply to James Hoslck, the detective of Los Angeles, who assisted him.

GIRL'S TESTIMONY IS BRANDED FALSE

Attorney Shortridge Attacks Statements of Ethel Williams.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11. — Attorney Samuel Shortridge, arguing in behalf of Dr. Otto C. Josien, made a strong address to the jury in Judge Lawlor's court this morning. Line by line he tore down the fabric of the testimony which had been submitted by the prosecution, pointed to the alleged evidence of mistreatment on the part of Ethel Williams, the prosecuting witness, and declared repeatedly that if sixteen persons, or any of them were to be believed, then the young girl, herself, had testified falsely and the accused should be acquitted.

Upon the subject of her age, which several persons had declared she told them was 18, and again in connection with Dr. Josien being a married man, it is alleged was told her by half a dozen citizens, counsel contended she had not spoken the truth and that on these two facts alone Dr. Josien should be acquitted.

It is expected that the case will go to the jury before night, but there is possibility that the instructions will not be given by the court until tomorrow morning.

DON'T BE BALD

Almost Any One May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair.

You can easily find out for yourself if your hair needs nourishment, if it is thinning, getting dry, harsh and brittle, or splitting at the ends. You simply have to pull a hair from the top of your head and closely examine its root. If the bulb is plump and rosy it is all right; if it is white and shrunken your hair is diseased and needs nourishment.

We have a remedy for hair troubles that cannot be surpassed. It has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 93 out of 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. It will even grow hair on bald heads if the scalp is not glazed and shiny. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.

We are so sure that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will completely eradicate dandruff, prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for Rexall "93" Hair Tonic in every instance where it does not do as we claim or fails to give entire satisfaction to the user.

EXPERT ON STAND IN PACKERS' CASE

Henry Moyer Tells of Making Credit Allowance for Hides.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Henry Moyer, expert accountant in charge of figuring the test cost of slaughtered animals for Armour and Company resumed the witness stand today as the sixth witness for the government in the trial of the ten Chicago packers before United States District Judge Carpenter.

District Attorney Wilkerson continued his direct examination.

"Can you tell us when the practice of making a credit allowance for hides was abandoned by the packers in figuring the test cost of cattle?" he asked.

"I cannot remember the date," replied Moyer.

"Yesterday I asked you to lok at your records in an effort to refresh your memory on the question of the cost of hides?"

"There are no records on the subject available," said the witness.

Moyer produced a bundle of printed forms which he said were used in figuring the test cost of cattle in Armour and Company's office. He said there had been no change in the style of printed forms used in 6 or 7 years.

Moyer took several of the printed forms and explained in detail the method employed in figuring the test cost, giving all the items entered against the carcass, beginning with a killing charge of $2.75 per head. He then enumerated the credit allowances deducted for by products.

So Tired of Tired Feet! Use TIZ

Gets the "Tired" Out In a Few Minutes Makes Your Feet Sore-Proof.

"Pull, Johnny, Pull!"

"O fudge! It's awful how tired feet make you feel tired all over—so dead tired. Then, when you've got a corn besides, and a bunion, and a few blisters, and your feet are terribly swollen, you don't care if you've got a million dollars—you're tired, that's all. A million dollars can't help you, any more than 25 cents will."

A quarter buys a box of TIZ—a wonder for tired, sore, tender, chafed, blistered, swollen, sweaty, smelly feet, corns, callouses and bunions, chilblains and frost-bite. The moment you use it, you give a sigh of relief, and then you smile. There's nothing as good as TIZ, so don't accept any attempted imitation. TIZ draws out all the poisonous exudation that make foot troubles.

TIZ, 25 cents a box, sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all drug stores, department and general stores.

CATCHES GLIMPSE OF MISSING MAN

Ohio Visitor Sees Brother for Whom He Has Searched Many Years.

After earnestly searching this country fourteen years for his brother, John Merzweller of Akron, Ohio, believes he saw his relative on the street in this city.

Merzweller did not immediately recognize his brother and when he made a frantic dash to reach him he was carried away on a street car, and the crowd prevented his reaching the car in time to catch his lost relative.

It is explained by Merzweller that his brother deserted the family home after a quarrel with his step-mother. For a time he corresponded with John and said he was in the employ of a railroad as engineer. Finally the letters ceased to come.

A search has been made all over the country for the missing brother and lists of all the railroad employes have been examined. False clews have been run to earth in Chicago, New Orleans, Milwaukee, Washington and other places.

The only marks of identification that were identical with the man he saw on the car and his brother were a big scar on his left cheek, which attracted his attention to the man on the street.

SEEKS TO SET ASIDE RULINGS OF BOARD

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—A petition was filed in the superior court yesterday by Dr. Cecil Chalmers Dennis, a dentist, for a writ of review of a sentence of six months' suspension from the practice of his profession, pronounced by the Board of Dental Examiners of California on a conviction for violation of subdivision 2, section 21½ of a legislative act of March 21, 1901, regulating the practice of dentistry in the state.

The specific charge was practicing under a fictitious name, it being alleged that the title "Dr. Chambers" was prominently displayed before the offices of the defendant, and that he used the same name in advertising, collecting a fee of $3.50 from Mrs. May Getchell, to whom he represented himself as Dr. Chalmers.

This is one of the several cases growing out of the campaign of the board of dental examiners for a stricter enforcement of the statute.

Many a man doesn't know one drink from another. He makes a wry face when he drinks Scotch.

SCHOOL SOCIETIES GIVEN BODY BLOW

Court of Appeals Rules That Law Against Fraternities Is Constitutional.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The decision rendered and signed by Judge Frank Kerrigan, and concurred in by Judges Lennon and Hall in the District Court of Appeals, holding that the Legislative act of 1909, providing that a public school pupil may be expelled for joining a school secret order society is constitutional, and will remain in good working order for the future. This ultimatum falls as a blow to the secret societies and sororities in public preparatory schools of California.

The case of Doris Bradford of this city, who was expelled from the Girls High School because she became a member of the Gamma Beta Chapter of the Omega Nu Sorority was the basis of the decision. Miss Bradford instigated suit through her sister and guardian adlitem in the cause of the sororities.

The Superior Court ruled that her expulsion was legal, the case was appealed, and has been hanging fire for a year or more, but the solar plexus blow of yesterday's decision seems to have at last settled the matter of sororities.

CITES REASONS.

In this suit it was contended that the law was unconstitutional for the following reasons:

First, the title of the act and the text did not conform.

The second contention was that it was unjust to discriminate against sororities when it was permissable for pupils to become members of the Native Sons and Daughters organization.

Thirdly, it was contended it was in direct violation of the constitution of the United States for any state to pass a law which abridged the privileges or immunities of any citizen.

The decision handed down by the Appellate Court was written by Justice Frank Kerrigan and was concurred in by Justice Hall and Chief Justice Lennon.

Justice Kerrigan holds that there is no distinction between the words "oath bound" and "secret," and that they mean one and the same thing.

He declared further that the Native Sons is a distinctive organization and cannot be classed on the same plane with Greek letter societies. Also that the law of prohibition passed by the Legislature was intended to apply only to the younger pupils in the public schools. This exempted students in the Normal schools.

He holds the public schools are kept up by and maintained by the several states and not by the United States, and therefore are subject to the state laws and not the constitution of the United States. Therefore, the decision declares merely the fact of being a citizen does not give a person the right to demand admission to a public school.

Attorney Weinmano, on behalf of Doris Bradford and the secret societies of the state, declared yesterday he would immediately file a petition with the Appellate Court for a rehearing. If this petition were denied, or if upon rehearing the case was again decided adversely, he said it would be carried on a writ of error to the United States Supreme Court.

HEARING CONTINUED.

Being unable to get an outside judge to try the suit brought in the Superior Court by Frank M. Ogden, suspended from the Oakland High School for one year for alleged violation of rules with reference to fraterticis and secret clubs, against the members of the Board of Education, to compel them to re-instate him as a student, Assistant District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, with the concurrance of Attorney Eugene E. Treffethen, representing Ogden, this forenoon secured a continuance of the matter until January 22. At that time the issues raised by Superior Judge Ogden's son will be thrashed out on their merits.

The decision handed down yesterday by the Appellate Court to the effect that the anti-fraternity law is constitutional, does no in any way affect the status of the Ogden case. In the local matter the constitutionality of the anti-fraternity law has not been raised, the only issue being whether or not school rules were broken by Ogden and his suspended associates and whether the suspension was regular.

ALLEGED ROBBER TOOK WRONG GRIP

Suitcase He Left Behind Contained Jewelry and $300 in Coin.

After locating a man, whom he believed to be a burglar, in an outhouse on Idaho street and Alcatraz avenue, Patrolman Stephen Connolly sent in a call for aid in making the capture, as he believed the burglar might have accomplices who would aid him in resisting arrest. Captain Lynch and a posse went to his assistance, and after surrounding the place, arested C. R. McClure on a burglary charge. McClure was arraigned before Judge Mortimer Smith this morning, his case being deferred to Saturday to be set for preliminary examination.

McClure entered a house at 1001 Sixty-third avenue and is said to have taken one or two suitcases belonging to Charles R. Duncan of 6229 Baker street. The suitcase taken by McClure contained apparel valued at a small sum. In the one the burglar left in his haste to get away was jewelry, valued at $500, and $260 in coin. It is stated by the police that McClure has confessed.

The Lyric Theater Offers Many Pictures of Interest.

Have you been to the Lyric this week? Sure I have, and it certainly was great, and what's more, there's a whole bunch of good pictures to come, so I guess I shall go again! That's the sort of conversation you may hear at almost any time and any place in the city—in the home, in the office or on the street—yes, even in the school yard among the kiddies the one topic is motion pictures and the Lyric's splendid program.

"The Doll," a touching story of love and parental affection; "The Voice of a Child" and "The Revenue and the Girl" close the midweek offering of splendid pictures. As a week and special program "A Royal Romance," "Hearts of Kings" and "Their Last Chance," each and every one makes a truly regal setting to a most enjoyable seven days of delightful motion pictures.

As a continuance of this week's magnificent, never-tiring delights a most varied and enjoyable program has already been announced for the first of next week's productions. We shall laugh, cry and sit in wide-eyed interest. We shall view scenes from far-off countries that very, very few of us, I'll warrant, will ever be able to see in the real, such as the Codfish industry in New Foundland or the Oyster industry. We shall be carried from one emotion to another by "Object-Matrimony" and "The Valley of Regrets," by "The Noble Enemy" and "Freezing Aunty," or allowed to sit in serene contentment viewing "The Cowboy Artist's Jonah Day" or "The Rebuked Indian." A truly prophetic beginning is the program of these first few weeks of the new year at the Lyric Theater.

SAUSALITO AND WATER COMPANY IS SUED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Ira M. Henry brought suit this morning against the city of Sausalito, Joseph A. Nodder, the treasurer, and the Marin Water and Power Company for an injunction to restrain the payment of certain funds by the city to the water company. Henry asked the court to annul the contract between the water company and the city made in March, 1909, alleging that there was no legal authority for the making of it. The terms of the contract were to the effect that the city was to pay 30c a gallon for a 200,000 gallons of water per day and a less sum if the consumption was greater than 500,000 gallons.

ROBBED OF $30.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Michael O'Rourke, an employe of the lighthouse service, was held up by two men in South Park early this morning and robbed of $30, a check for $100 and a watch.

DEPARTURE OF TROOPS DELAYED

American Soldiers Are Jubilant Over the Campaign on Chinese Territory

Manchu Abdication of Power Is Expected to Come Shortly

MANILA, Jan. 11.—Delay has arisen in connection with the departure of the transport Logan, which is to convey the first battalion of the Fifteenth Infantry Regiment to China. She probably will not leave until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

The delay was due to the alterations which it was necessary to make on the transport so as to provide proper accommodation for the field and machine guns and the horses.

MURDOCK TO ASSIST.

It is expected that the voyage to China will last six days. The troops will disembark at Chin Wang Tao and Rear-Admiral Joseph Murdock, commander of the United States Asiatic squadron, probably will assist at the landing.

The strength of the expedition will be 570 in all, including the first battalion of the Fifteenth Infantry, the detachment of the Hospital Corps, a machine gun platoon and a field service wagon train.

ARROWSMITH IN COMMAND.

Major James M. Arrowsmith, who will be in command, will be accompanied by an officer of the intelligence department, and will report to William Calhoun, American minister at Peking.

The troops will go aboard the transport at 4 o'clock this afternoon. They came down from Fort McKinley in huge barges along the river Passac. All were jubilant at the chance of field service.

MANCHUS TO ABDICATE.

NANKING, Jan. 11.—There is reason to believe the abdication of the Manchus has been decided upon, the Republicans agreeing to meet Yuan Shi Kai half way regarding terms on which the national conventions shall be called. It is understood that recognition of the Republicans as belligerents by any one power would immediately be effective in securing a settlement satisfactory to both parties.

Republican military leaders say the action of the powers in guarding the railway is entirely unnecessary, especially as communication was interrupted by order of an Imperialist general. President Sun Yat Sen declares that order will be restored throughout republican China within thirty days.

It is asserted positively by persons arriving here from those provinces that Shen Tung, Chi Li and Ho Nan are solidly republican with the exception of officials and mercenaries, but for the present terrorism controls.

For each soldier's haversack rations for ten days are being taken and garrison rations for anotehr ninety days. For heating purposes and fuel 600 cords of wood have been shiped.

It is probable that interisland transport vessels will be utilized for replenishing the supplies of the expedition, making Manila the basis.

ABDICATION CERTAIN.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Voluminous telegrams are being exchanged between Premier Yuan Shi Kai and Wu Ting Fang, Republican minister of justice, and there is a growing pressure that will force the throne to abdicate without waiting for the decision of the national convention, says a dispatch to the Times from Peking. There is excellent authority to believe that the ex-premier, Prince Ching, and the other princes favor this course. The correspondent adds that an early abdication is certain.

RUSSIA IS ACTIVE.

PEKING, Jan. 11.—The negotiations which are now proceeding between China and Russia on the subject of Mongolia henceforth will be conducted in St. Petersburg, as it is considered that the upheaval here militates against the progress of the discussions.

It is understood in well-informed circles that China is prepared to discuss the project for the construction of the trans-Mongolian railroad, which will include the linking of Kia Khta, on the Siberian side of the frontier, and Urga, the capital of Mongolia, with the Siberian railway system. The Chinese government, however, disputes the justice of the other conditions put forward by Russia and the Mongolians. The latter include the withdrawal of the Chinese garrison from Mongolia, the recall of Chinese functionaries and the cessation of Chinese attempts at the colonization of Mongolia.

BACON RESIGNS AS AMERICAN AMBASSADOR

ROBERT BACON

PARIS, Jan. 11.—Robert Bacon, ambassador of the United States at Paris, confirmed today the report of his resignation. Bacon's resignation is due to reach President Taft today.

Bacon refrained from making his retirement public, as he desired the first announcement to come from Harvard University, which yesterday chose him to be a fellow in place of Judge Lowell, deceased.

Bacon said he wished his friends to know that there were no ulterior motives for his resignation. He had for seventeen years been a member of the Harvard board of overseers and could not, he said, decline the honor of becoming a fellow of Harvard, which he considered to be the best single influence for good in America.

CONCRETE WORK UNDERGOES TEST

Slabs Must Sustain Weight of 2500 Pounds to the Square Foot.

Rigid strength tests are being conducted today at the new city hall by Supervising Architect J. J. Donovan and his men on the two reinforced concrete slabs constructed thirty days ago as replicas of the concrete work for the floor of the new municipal edifice.

Each of the slabs, four inches in thickness and suspended between steel beams, will be subjected to a strain by having a load placed upon it and gradually increased until it breaks. It is estimated that the working load to be carried by the floors will be about 250 pounds to the square foot. The specifications demand that the concrete shall sustain ten times the safe working load.

The slabs were set in place this morning, and weights placed upon them. It is estimated that if the slabs carry the specified load they will reach the maximum and break about 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Great interest is being taken in the tests, and in addition to the city officials and others, a number of well-known architects of the bay region will visit the city hall site this afternoon and await the conclusion of the tests.

The slabs were made by the Roebling Construction company. The one representing the first floor is 5 feet 6¼ inches by 12 feet 6 inches. That for the second and all subsequent floors is 4 feet 6 inches by 12 feet 8 inches. Both slabs are 4 inches in thickness. Each will be subjected to a load of 2500 pounds to the square foot if it stands this amount.

Heavier wire reinforcement is used in the first floor than in the slab for the upper floors. The test is said to be one that will conclusively prove the strength of the concrete work.

DEPOSITORS NOT FEARFUL OF SUIT

State Superintendent of Banks W. R. Williams has taken a hand in the suit of Naph Greensfelder against the Bank of Germany and yesterday he remained at the bank during banking hours for the purpose of personally assuring any depositors that claims made by Greensfelder in his sensational suit were without foundation so far as they dealth with the soundness and stability of the institution and its management.

Meanwhile District Attorney W. H. Donahue is considering the advisability of possible criminal action against Greensfelder for his alleged libelous insinuations contained in the suit. Attorney George E. de Golia, attorney for the bank, held a consultation with the District Attorney yesterday and the latter said that in the event of prosecution the case would be treated as a high misdemeanor in the police court. Although Superintendent Williams arrived at the bank yesterday 15 minutes before it opened and remained all day there was not one depositor who called that inquired as to the financial status of the institution.

SUPERVISOR FOSS WANTS NEW DIVISION OF COUNTY

Other Officials Say They Are Satisfied With Present Arrangements

Supervisor Fred W. Foss of Berkeley will probably bring up before the board at its meeting next Monday the matter of re-apportioning the supervisorial districts on the grounds that his constituents have pressed him for a change that will create a district including the whole of Berkeley. Under the apportionment as the lines are now drawn, the district in which Foss holds sway consists of 17 precincts in Berkeley and 33 precincts in Oakland. Supervisor Mullins has 13 in Berkeley and 57 in this city. Part of the Foss district also lies in Piedmont.

Pending a decision on the part of Supervisors Foss and Bridge, County Surveyor P. A. Haviland has necessarily delayed the preparations of his maps, including the precinct lines, for the coming presidential primaries. It is essential that the maps be completed by February 5 and today at an informal discussion in the rooms of the board, at which time all the members of the Board of Supervisors were present, Surveyor Haviland urged both Foss and Bridge to arrive at some decision in the matter of re-apportionment within the next few days.

SEVERAL SATISFIED.

So far as he himself is concerned, Supervisor Bridge says that he is satisfied with the apportionment and that so far as he has been able to determine the people of Alameda, part of which city is within his district, are satisfied also. He desires, however, to interview some of his constituents further on the question. Supervisor Mullins says that he also is satisfied with his district. Supervisor Murphy, who has the greater portion of the outlying country sections, says that his district is entirely to his satisfaction and Supervisor Kelley has not declared himself in any definite manner.

The matter is therefore up to Supervisor Foss for bringing it to the attention of the board. Whether or not he will do so at the meeting next Monday he had not determined today. He declared if he could have his way there would be no supervisorial districts and each member of the board would represent the people at large.

"But under the present conditions," he said, "I would be satisfied if I could have Berkeley in its entirety. At the present time it is in the ratio of 33 to 18 and 57 to 17. That is not satisfactory to many of the people whom I represent."

In the event of Foss insisting upon a change and the same being granted, the lines of other districts would necessarily have to be re-drawn. Supervisor Bridge would undoubtedly be affected and so would Supervisor Mullins. Supervisor Kelley, who has portions of the Seventh ward in Oakland and the remainder in Alameda, in all 28 precincts, would probably not be disturbed.

INFORMAL DISCUSSION.

The Supervisors were not called together this morning as a committee of the whole, and affairs were only discussed in an informal way. Among the other matters that will come up during Monday's meeting, in all probability, will be the recommendation of Chairman Mullins that $3500 be set aside from the county funds for the purpose of doing preliminary work toward the construction of a tunnel under the estuary connecting Oakland and Alameda.

Supervisor Foss will also take a stand against the granting to County Clerk John P. Cook the sum of $500 to be used in defraying the expenses of registration deputies in traveling about the county and for hiring halls.

OPPOSED BY FOSS.

"I cannot see where the expenditure is justified," said Foss, "and unless I can be convinced I shall not vote for it."

As to the appointment of a registrar of voters under the new law, it is not likely that the Supervisors will take action for some time for the reason that the Taxpayers' Association has requested a delay so that it can thoroughly look over the records in the office of the County Clerk, through experts, and determine just how much of a saving there would be to the county or how much an increase in expenditure.

The Supervisors are also having the records investigated and are awaiting a full report before they proceed to name the new official.

In the opinion of one member of the board, at least, there will be a great saving, taking into consideration that the work will be doubled, owing to the registration of women.

"By paring down the extravaganves of the present system I believe that we can show the taxpayers that the appointment of a registrar would be beneficial," said Supervisor Foss. "In a conference with Mr. Requa the other day I told him that that was my opinion and we are awaiting the results of the investigation."

PROPOSED WATER PLANT CONSIDERED

General plans for the commencement of proceedings for the creating of the proposed municipal water district were the subject of discussion at an informal, but executive session of the mayors of the seven cities it is planned to include in the district, held in the office of Mayor Frank K. Mott this afternoon. Nothing definite was decided upon at the meeting.

The purpose of the gathering was to outline the general plans and the intent of the law passed at the special session of the legislature to enable the creation of the water district. Each of the mayors present had been authorized to attend the conference and to report back to his city council or board of trustees as to the probable method of procedure. Ben H. Pendleton, president of the Oakland municipal water supply committee, and father of the bill, explained the intent of the measure, and outlined the preliminary steps toward the calling of an election to create a municipal water district.

MANY PRESENT.

The following were present:

Mayor Mott from Oakland; Mayor W. H. Noy, Alameda; Mayor J. Stitt Wilson, Berkeley; Mayor E. D. Cushing, Albany; Mayor Hugh Craig, Piedmont; Mayor W. H. Christie, Emeryville.

It is proposed to form all these municipalities into one water district, condemn and purchase the Peoples water plant under the new law enacted by the State Legislature. The first step, which will be taken up at the meeting tomorrow, will be the formation of the proposed district.

The Berkeley City Club will take up the discussion of the project at a dinner to be given by the club Tuesday, January 23, at the Hotel Shattuck. The club will hear a discussion of the subject by speakers, among whom will be City Attorney Percy V. Long of San Francisco, Councilman Ben Pendleton of Oakland, Assemblyman C. C. Young of Berkeley, Max Thelen and George C. Burlingame, David P. Barrows, president of the City Club, will preside.

Mayor James C. Owens, City Engineer H. D. Chapman, City Attorney B. H. Griffins and Mrs. B. Felch of the Richmond Women's Club have been appointed by the City Council as a committee to look after Richmond's interests in the conference to be held in Oakland tomorrow.

The Alameda City Council, in unofficial committee session, met yesterday with Mayor Frank K. Mott of Oakland as Mayor W. H. Noy of Alameda to consider the water situation on the east side of the bay. The conference was called at the request of Mayor Mott.

Mayor Noy spoke on the situation in Alameda. He said Alameda had already entered into an agreement with the Union Water Company which had offered to furnish a main for the warehouse district on the marsh, now unprotected from fire, and also to install a complete and new distribution system, with no supply pipe less than four inches.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC IS GRANTED FURTHER TIME

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—The city council today granted the Sothern Pacific Company an extension of 60 days on the limit of its franchise for new electric lines on California and Ninth streets. The company had represented to the council that the delay in completing this part of the system has been due to its failure to secure certain rights of way. The California street portion of the company's loop is in operation but the Ninth street road is not yet ready.

COMPANY SCORED BY CITY OFFICIALS

Manager Ordered to Tell Why He Does Not Employ Home Labor.

Denouncing the Judson manufacturing company in the matter of the city hall contract, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner this morning moved that Manager Fred B. Parsons be cited to appear before the council tomorrow morning to explain why the company has not fulfilled its promise of employing home labor. The motion was passed and City Clerk Frank Thompson was instructed to notify Parsons to appear.

A warm session is promised for tomorrow. Turner and Parsons will probably clash over the question of employing Oakland laborers on the steel erection.

The matter came up this morning in the form of a report from Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson, under whose department the work of erecting the City Hall is placed. Anderson asked that he be given the backing of the council in handling the situation, which he explained as follows:

"A number of prominent men have come to me to complain that the Blum construction company, a sub-contractor employed by the Judson people for the erection of the steel, is employing a number of San Francisco and outside men in his steel erection gang. This is in violation of the terms of the contract, as I understand it. The specifications demands that so far as possible labor employed in this work shall be from Oakland.

WANTS COUNCIL TO ACT.

"I feel that action on the part of this council, directing the employment of local labor, would be of more power and meaning to the contractor than personal warning from me or even from his honor, the Mayor."

"I don't see why it would not be proper to have these people cited to appear before the council," suggested Commissioner Turner, and Anderson incorporated this in his motion, which was passed by the council on Turner's second.

"Manager Parsons had better come prepared to deliver a homily on the merits of favoring home industry," Turner proceeded. "That would be in keeping with the hypocritical attitude of this firm. The Judson people have invoked the home industry cry, and have used it on every possible and impossible occasion. It would be exceedingly appropriate for them to suggest its bearing upon the present case."

CITIZEN PROTESTS.

A citizen in the lobby offered to cite seven instances where Oakland workmen had been employed on municipal work in San Francisco, only to be summarily discharged when their place of residence became known.

"What we want is similar treatment here," he demanded.

Turner returned to the attack with the comment that he had been informed by Eugene Thurston, a former city trustee, that as a result of the placing a certain "home industry" clause in the City Hall specifications, one of the bidders had boosted his price $50,000 at the last moment. Turner went back over the history of the home industry controversy and told how he had opposed certain things when a member of the old board of public works because they would add to the expense by causing bidders to raise their estimates.

HIGH SCHOOL HOLDS ITS FIRST RALLY OF TERM

A. MACDONALD.

The first rally of the year was held yesterday afternoon at the Oakland High School with Arch Macdonald, the newly-elected yell leader of the school, in charge. Macdonald was assistant yell leader last year under Howard Sargeant. He was loudly cheered by the students at his first rally.

Principal C. E. Keyes was the first of the speakers. He encouraged the boys to take up athletics, especially track and basketball work.

Johnny Whitton, captain of the basketball team, announced that Frank Boek would coach the squad. The first game of the season will be played next Saturday against the San Jose High school team at San Jose.

Harold Baxter, track captain, and Captain Charlies Cowan of the baseball squad, addressed the students on the work of their men thus far this season.

Harold Melvin gave a piano solo.

SENIORS ORGANIZE.

The high and low senior classes of the school have organized and selected their class colors. Red and white is the emblem of the high seniors while the low seniors selected yellow and white as their colors, and the boys in the rival classes have already started their semi-annual battle for supremacy. The low seniors, however, managed to steal a march on their rivals, as several large yellow banners were displayed high in the air across Jefferson, Twelfth and Eleventh streets. Yellow signs were displayed everywhere about the Oakland High school much to the disgust of the high seniors, who hinted sl[illegible]y of ambitious youths working in t[illegible]wee" shmall hours of the morning while the Board of Education slept blissfully ignorant of the the student pranks.

ANNA HELD'S EYES MISBEHAVE AS PER USUAL

The Star of "Miss Innocence" Bewilders Audience With Orbs and Gowns.

HARRY WATSON'S FARCE OF A RARE VINTAGE

Lisle and Lingerie a-Plenty in Typical Ziegfeld Musical Comedy.

(By LEO LEVY.)

From the standpoint of Anna Held, her diamonds and gowns, Harry Watson, lisle, legs and lingerie, "Miss Innocence," a tinseled musical comedy, is a large success. You can't get away from it. Not caring for Miss Held, perhaps her diamonds appeal, or her frocks. If a man, and liking not these, there are yards of hosiery, well-filled hosiery, hosiery of graceful curves and flimsy texture. Also, there is Harry Watson Jr., producing center of high glee.

Thus, we see that there is no excuse in Oakland for not liking "Miss Innocence," and none of us sought such, last night at the Macdonough. There were some many hundreds of us present. Anna Held lived up to her reputation as a drawing card and the house verged on a condition akin to sold out. It was a mingling of society folk and smirking youngsters, the latter as near to licking their chops as ever was puppy over a bowl of milk.

Miss Held does not twinkle as merrily as her diamond-smeared slippers, due to a partial eclipse for which Harry Watson is responsible. We are generous. Others have coupled the passing years with Miss Held's name; we blame Watson. The star's eyes are misbehaving, as per usual, however, so we may be thankful for that.

SCHOOL OF INNOCENCE.

Miss Held is Anna, a model pupil in a school of innocence, who has been hidden away from the world that a father, or an uncle, or somebody else, may enjoy her inheritance. She has been branded "Miss Innocence" that her naughtiness may be all the more so and makes full use of opportunities made for her by the men who botched the book, mangled the lyrics and dawdled with the music.

Those who went to see Miss Held were not at all disappointed. She is all her press agent claims her to be and perhaps a little more that has eluded him. She wears gowns, creations and drygoods architecture that bears the stamp of Paris and have put some thousands of hubby's money in circulation. There was the diamond embroidered affair costing $20,000, for instance. Doubt us not; we have the press agent's word for these figures. Also present was a be-gemmed fortune dangling from her neck on a string of watery diamonds. In passing, we would mention the heel of her golden slippers were solid diamonds, or rather, that the heels of her diamond slippers were solid gold—it's one or the two, at any rate, and it's the society reporter's job to describe 'em, not our's.

Miss Held's songs explain their excuse for existence through their titles. For instance: "I Want Something New to Play With," "I Have Lost my Little Brown Bear," "I Wonder What's the Matter With my Eyes" ("Wiz my eyes," warbles Anna), and "Kiss, Kiss, Kiss." The elevation of the drama, Alfred, has taken to the woods, and art is short and fleeting. Be which as it may, the fact remains they bring Miss Held back for encores.

WATSON IS PLOT.

Harry Watson is the plot of "Miss Innocence," with apologies to Harry B. Smith, who claims the honor on the program. Watson as Ezra Pettingill, "the greatest detective in the world," is the white hope of low comedy, a veritable laugh factory that, like the mill of the gods and the flour trust, grind fast and exceeding much. That Watson is not already starring is a curious blunder on the New York's wide-awake, sometimes, theatrical producers. He prostrates himself before the throne and goes the limit.

Watson possesses that rare thing in the show business, a thousand and one tricks of the trade that give him the opportunity of springing a surprise every two minutes. To others of the gifted comedy fraternity have been given one set of manners that must be spread out over two hours and a half of entertainment. Watson employs a score sets and a few more. His is the low comedy that has been making the world laugh since the modern stage got a strangle hold on the world's bank roll, but his methods are entirely his own and only as old as his career.

Ethel Kelley, a graceful dancer but entirely limited in ability, portrays a bright Claire. Sarah Edwards, known for years to the bay cities, is Miss Sniffins, proprietor of the School for Innocence, and makes much of a caricature. The remainder of the cast uses discretion and casts care to the winds.

DULL NAUGHTINESS.

As for the naughtiness of Miss Innocence—which you, Alfred, went to see and hear, last night—it lives up to that home-made axiomatic thing that brands smut for smut's sake deadly dull. The play is bright, colorful, catchy, flashy, funny until the lines take on a double edge and then one is inclined to yawn and long for Watson's appearance.

Of legs and lingerie, there are a-plenty, a Ziegfeld plenty. Skirts are shorter, tights more extensive, girls numberless and lace in quantity. Lisle and silk are displayed with little provocation or none at all. A room in a Parisian hotel is flashed for the evident sake of displaying a shapely young woman in an Annette Kellerman, who is posing for a number of brief-skirted women artists. However, shocks are not among those present. Inasmuch as underwear advertisements and muslin showwindow displays are plentiful, these doleful days, we're used to it. "Miss Innocence" is a sumptuous affair, scenically, vieing with the fair chorus. Which with Anna Held, Harry Watson and the legs, make well worth while the three hours or so you spend watching them flash their brilliant way across the stage.

WOOD AGAIN ATTACKS REORGANIZATION PLAN

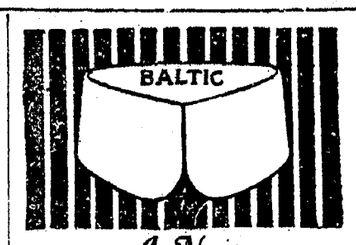

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The Hay bill providing for reorganization of the army, now before the house, was attacked in a statement by Major General Wood, chief of staff, sent yesterday to the house committee on military affairs, of which Hay is chairman.

Following the lines of President Taft's expressed opposition to the bill, Wood said that the measure contained changes that would impair army efficiency and demoralize the service without resulting in real economies.

Changes proposed in the bill include the consolidation of the general staff with the adjutant general's and inspector general's departments, a consolidation of the quartermaster's department with the subsistence and pay departments; the creation of an army service corps and an extension of the enlistment period from three to five years.

HAY WAREHOUSE BURNS.

SAN JOSE, Jan. 11.—The warehouse of R. Pees, at Mayfield, containing 400 tons of hay valued at about $8000, was burned last night. The fire is thought to have been caused by tramps who were sleeping in the building.

STANFORD DROPS 17 FROM ROLLS

Deficient Scholarship Axe Falls Hard on Neck of College Delinquents.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Jan. 11.—Because of deficient scholarship during the last semester seventeen Stanford students have been requested to leave the university. Sixty-two others have been placed on strict probation and will be suspended if they again fall in their studies.

Statistics show that the scholarship has improved in the last year. Twenty-four students were suspended in 1910. The scholarship of fraternity men, which was complained of last year, shows considerable improvement.

NEWSPAPER MAN MAY GET BERTH ON BOARD

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—A report is current here this evening that George H. Francis, a newspaper man of Napa, will be one of those appointed by Governor Johnson to fill one of the vacancies on the board of managers of the Napa State Hospital.

Who will be the appointees to the other positions has not been guessed. The vacancies will not occur until January 15, so no announcements will be made before that date.

Any little wound or abrasion of the flesh occurring in cold weather that is not promptly treated becomes a bad sore and is difficult to heal. PTOMAINE POISON MAKES 150 ILL

Many Inmates of Leavenworth Soldiers Home Seized With Sudden Sickness.

LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Jan. 11.—Investigation was continued today to find the origin of the poison which is believed to have been put in the hash which caused the illness of 150 veterans at the soldiers' home, who ate of it at breakfast Wednesday. None of the old soldiers was in a dangerous condition at any time. Major J. L. Fryer, chief surgeon, says that those not already well are recovering.

The hash was at first blamed for the sickness, but careful examination showed no trace of anything in it which might have caused the trouble. The kitchen and meat department were closely inspected last night and not a trace of poison found.

The meat is always examined before being cooked, it is claimed. Major Fryer, who ate the hash and suffered no ill-effects, believed that possibly a portion of the meat was poisoned, as only 150 of the 2000 veterans who ate of it were affected.

223,000 ACRES TO BE RECLAIMED IN TULARE

FRESNO, Jan. 11.—Plans for the reclaiming of 223,000 acres of the overflow region of Tulare lake and the erection of a gigantic reservoir for water to be used in the irrigation of land are under consideration, according to reports from the big property owners of the West Side. L. A. McCabe, city engineer of Visalia, is the authority for the statement that $20,000,000 will be expended by a syndicate of Santa Fe capitalists to reclaim the Tulare lake acreage, and Attorney Frang Short of this city said today that the activities about Tulare lake were occasioned by the desire of the West Side land owners to secure irrigation. The plan is to construct a big canal from the lake to the unirrigated land.

REDISTRICTING TO BE BEGUN AT VALLEJO

VALLEJO, Jan. 11.—Because some of the present districts are too unwieldy, County Clerk G. C. Halliday has found it advisable to redistrict all of Vallejo and probably all of the remainder of the county. The granting of surage to women will make the vote doubly heavy, and will mean at least sixteen new polling places for Vallejo alone. The work will be taken up by the County Supervisors at their next meeting.

COMPANY TO FORE AGAIN.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Company E of the National Guard will be mustered in Tuesday night by Captain J. Alexander, representing the adjutant general's office. This company was recently mustered out for incompetency, but has been rehabilitated and has seventy members enrolled. A. W. Lewis is slated as captain of the new company.

When Your Hair Is Faded or Brittle

"A beautiful growth of long, glossy and fluffy hair can be had by every woman—hair of a rich, even color," writes Mrs. Mac Martyn in the Washington Leader. "The only condition to this is that shampooing be indulged in at least once a month. And a word about what to use: Never—no, never employ soaps or mixtures containing 'free' alkali, because of the disastrous effects following.

"A dependable and really delightful shampoo mixture can be made by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. This is enough for a thorough cleasing of both scalp and hair. After a canthrox shampoo the hair dries evenly and quickly and regains its former shade, soft fluffiness and rich gloss. Nothing is so effective for removing dandruff and keeping the scalp healthy and pliant."

Danderine

Stops Falling Hair and Destroys Dandruff

Makes the Hair Grow Long, Heavy and Luxuriant and We Can Quickly Prove It

If You Wish to Double the Beauty of Your Hair at Once, Just Get a 25 Cent Bottle and Try This

Surely try a Danderine Hair Cleanse if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair with little trouble and at a cost not worth mentioning—just moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—In a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. It's exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

SCHOOLMA'MS REFUSE TO GIVE THEIR AGES

SANTA CRUZ, Jan. 11.—Since the registration of women began in Santa Cruz county the clerk's office encountered no trouble until the school teachers put in an appearance to register.

Believing it was unnecessary to give their correct ages, a body of them appeared before the registration deputy to qualify as voters, but when informed that it would be necessary for them to give their ages they rebelled, and, before explanations could be given in regard to the registration laws, the schoolmarms made a hasty retreat.

As it will be close on to 60 days before the law will make it unnecessary for the fair sex to give their ages, it is hardly probable that the school teachers of Santa Cruz will muster up sufficient courage to exercise the franchise they are entitled to.

CRUSHED UNDER AUTO, LAND MAN IS SAVED

WILLOWS, Jan. 11.—P. R. Lorraine, a land developer of this place, lies in a critical condition at his home as a result of an automobile accident on the Jacinto road. He would have been dead but for the fact that he was discovered pinned down under his machine by Mrs. D. R. McKalip, who summoned her husband and George St. Louis. They lifted the machine off the man's body and brought him hurriedly to this city.

The back of the automobile seat caught Lorraine on the back of the neck and held him to the ground. He was being choked to death when discovered.

WADES AFTER A DUCK, MIRES AND IS DROWNED

SEATTLE, Jan. 11.—The body of John Deering, 26 years old, was found yesterday on the mud flats at Stanwood. Deeringer went duck hunting and the position of his body caused the belief that he waded into the mud flats to pick up his quarry, became mired and was drowned by the rising tide. His coat and gun were found a few feet away, where he had laid them when he waded into the treacherous mud.

BOURBON COMMITTEE NAMES LLOYD CHAIRMAN

WKASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The Democratic congressional committee re-organized last night, unanimously re-electing Representative Lloyd of Missouri chairman. Other officers elected were:

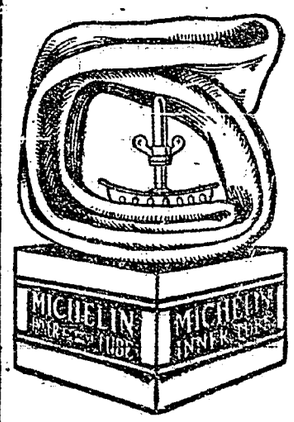

Vice-chairman, Representatives Finley, South Carolina; Palmer, Pennsylvania, and Rainey of Illinois; secretary, Representative Page, North Carolina, who succeeds Representative Dixon, Indiana; assistant secretary, Representative Bell, Georgia; sergeant-at-arms, J. J. Sinnott, Virginia, doorkeeper of the House.

Chairman Lloyd was authorized to name all committees and to designate the treasurer. He was likewise empowered to designate some one from each state not having a Democratic representative in the house, to represent that state on the committee.

ELECTION IS QUIET.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 11.—The gubernatorial election in Georgia yesterday aroused but little interest. Former Governor Joseph M. Brown, Democratic nominee, was elected governor. The vote was light. The candidate against him was a Socialist. The Legislature will convene January 24 and Governor-elect Brown will take office January 25.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE EDITORIAL PAGE

M. C. CHAPMAN
President

The Free Warehousing Dispute.

In response to a recent article in this paper, the Stockton Mail has the following:

"THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, discussing Mr. Wheeler's threatened attack upon our free warehouse privileges, says that it will be as swift as any one to condemn Wheeler's action if the Mail is right; but adds that there is no apparent motive for such action on Wheeler's part, and asks us to explain the situation more clearly. We will do our best to make it clear.

"At Stockton, as well as at Sacramento, shippers of beans, onions and potatoes are permitted by three railroads, the Southern Pacific, the Western Pacific and the Santa Fe, to warehouse their produce free of charge, while transferring from water to rail. At San Francisco and other ports there is a warehouse charge averaging about $1.50 a ton for beans and around 8 cents a sack for spuds and onions. The three railroads are very well satisfied with the arrangement at Stockton and Sacramento, and at our town this has resulted in an enormous increase of the small farming industry, which feeds San Francisco. On all sides great ranches are being cut up into small farms, and the benefit to Stockton, to San Francisco and to the State is enormous.

"Now, the threat of Mr. Wheeler is to go to the Railroad Commission with a complaint of discrimination, since there are warehouse charges for this sort of produce at San Francisco. Technically he may be right. But in a moral and business way he is all wrong. For it is exactly as we have said. He can gain nothing for San Francisco, and he can only succeed in depriving our small farmers of their free warehouse privileges here. It is a mean, small piece of business. We resent it. Our business men resent it. Our shippers resent it. Our farmers resent it. And if we are so treated we will show our resentment in the most effective way—we will do just as little business with San Francisco as we possibly can, while the Chamber of Commerce continues to pay a man $12,000 a year to annoy and harass us in the interior. That is what we will certainly do—and the Mail talks for its people out here, Brother TRIBUNE."

Are there not two sides to this question? Before we proceed to condemn Mr. Wheeler let us see what it is he proposes to do. As we understand it he simply proposes that San Francisco (and Oakland) shall be placed on the same footing with interior competing points. Surely our Stockton contemporary does not think this is unfair. He does not propose to deprive Stockton and Sacramento of their warehouse privileges, but to extend the same privileges to the bay cities. What's wrong about that? Perhaps we are in error, but the Mail's explanation seems rather to be a somewhat heated defense of discrimination in favor of Stockton and Sacramento than a protest against a discrimination to the prejudice of those cities.

In discussing this very matter the San Francisco Chronicle makes some remarks which are not altogether clear, but which must be taken as a defense of Mr. Wheeler's proposition. Unfortunately the Chronicle evinces a desire to force traffic to the "sea routes" while protesting that all San Francisco wants is fair play. It says, "at some points rail carriers are offering free storage of products delivered by water carriers to their warehouses upon the condition that when the products are shipped out of the State the carrier furnishing the free storage gets the haul." This we believe is a fair statement of the case. "Our people are not trying to deprive Stockton and Sacramento of free warehousing, but to get the same privilege for this city," adds the Chronicle.

If that is all San Francisco wants, why the objection? Why should the interior competing points be given an advantage over cities by the seaside? If the rail carriers furnish free warehousing at Stockton and Sacramento, why can they not provide it at San Francisco and Oakland?

THE TRIBUNE desires to be just in this matter, but it is for fair play all round. Oakland will benefit from the abolition of free warehousing at all points, for she is preparing to go into the warehouse business on a large scale herself. For all that this city has no desire to curtail the privileges and facilities of other cities. The cost of storage in the chain of municipal warehouses Oakland is to establish will be reduced to a minimum, and the warehouses will have the advantage of being connected with every section of the water front by a belt line railway owned by the city. Thus Oakland will be placed in an independent position, both as to switching charges and warehousing; nevertheless, this city wants all the privileges accorded by common carriers to other cities.

William J. Bryan wanted J. M. Guffey thrown off the Democratic National Committee on the ground that Guffey bolted the Democratic ticket in 1896. But Mr. Bryan himself bolted the Democratic nominee for Governor in Nebraska two years ago because that gentleman opposed putting a prohibition plank in the platform. It makes a great difference whose ox is gored. Mr. Bryan reserves the right to bolt whenever he feels like it, but denies the right of anyone else to bolt.

A Poet's Defense of English Grammar.

Nothing so dramatic and heroic in warfare has occurred since Fingal's battle with the spirit of Lodi as Colonel Dunk McPherson's defense of English grammar. To Fingal's eyes the spirit of Lodi was a strange, mysterious, formless shape of a substance he could not grasp, and whose powers and purpose he could not comprehend.

To Colonel Dunk, English grammar is equally strange, mysterious, incomprehensible. It might be a new fashion in dress, an Egyptian obelisk, a new sauce for fried fish, a political reform, a geographical expression, a social excrescence, or any old thing save a slab of poetry so far as he is concerned, but he nevertheless rallies to its defense with all the enthusiasm that fired his beef baron ancestors when they went over the border after their winter's meat supply. To see him in action is to revel in the glory of combat. He wields his pen like a claymore and handles his claymore like a pen. Like Ivanhoe when he lined up with the Black Knight, he does not know for whom or what he is fighting, but he is "agin" the enemy and stout in defense of something which must loom upon his vision with the same impalpability and formlessness that the shape of the spirit of Lodi appeared to Fingal.

We are inclined to think Colonel Dunk believes English grammar is something good to eat. His bare-legged ancestors were wont in former times to go on regular "grub" hunts in England; they even wrote poetry about it—in fact, English cattle were the best crop the Scotch raised. Now English grammar doesn't even wear whiskers, and has been reformed so often that it must be purged of all iniquity and common sense. There is a suspicion of graft in supplying it to the common herd, however, and this may have inspired Colonel Dunk's ardor in its defense. The reaching habit makes companions in misery and fills the jails with men who get tipped off wrong on horse races and the stock market.

Yet, withal, Colonel Dunk McPherson's glowing championship of English grammar is not clearly explained. He never uses it in his poetry or in saying grace. He can't eat it, he can't drink it, and can't smell it, or even put it in his pipe and smoke it. To him it is a strange, unnatural, foreign compound, neither fish, flesh nor good Scotch whisky, and should be a fearsome thing to a mind naturally cautious, suspicious and superstitious.

But the ardency of Colonel Dunk's belief in English grammar is a conspicuous example of the trusting faith mortals place in the unseen, unknown and incomprehensible. The South Sea islander worships the shark because he knows the shark will eat him if it can catch him. Perhaps Colonel Dunk is devoted to English grammar for the same reason. It is true the Colonel would be a tough and indigestible morsel to devour, but not quite so unpalatable and indigestible as English grammar would be in case the Colonel undertook to assimilate it. We fear the consequences if the Colonel should ever be foolhardy enough to take up the study of grammar. The Santa Cruz Sentinel would lose its chief distinction and the odes of the Bard of the San Lorenzo their wild, weird melody.

Colonel Dunk and English grammar are already strangers—they should be enemies, for poetic genius is stifled in the embrace of grammar, which confounds the wise and increases the folly of the ignorant. Also it is deadly poison to domestic animals, for the office cat ate Colonel Dunk's defense of grammar and immediately went into convulsions.

Will history repeat itself? The Democrats are going to hold their national convention in Baltimore this year. On five previous occasions the Democratic national convention has been held in Baltimore, and on four of the five occasions Maryland gave her electoral vote to the opposition candidate.

The Industrial Accident Board is making heroic efforts to justify its existence. As a scheme of promotion, however, it does not seem to be worth what it costs to maintain it.

Equal Rights and Sex Privileges.

The discussion over requiring women to state their age in registering is delightfully irrelevant and inconclusive. Some editors are so gallant that they think women should not be required to comply with the law; some think the law should not apply to women, and others take the ground that it should be ignored if a woman objects to giving her age.

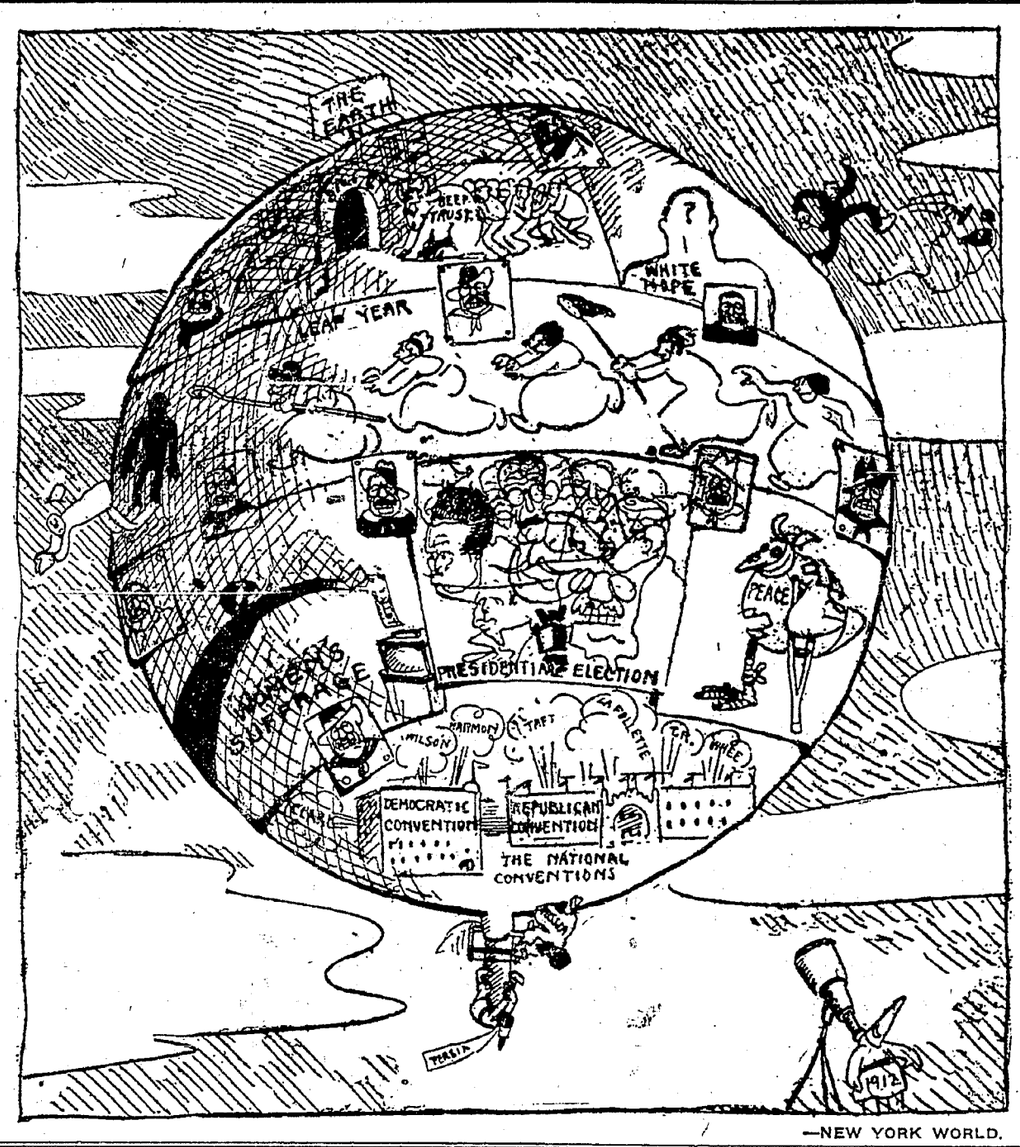

Now the franchise amendment gives women the same electoral status as men. The registration law requires each voter to give his or her age when registering. This law is mandatory. It is not discretionary with registration officers whether it shall be obeyed or not. The statement as to age is required for identification purposes, and is therefore, intended to serve a useful and necessary purpose. Those who object to its application to women are at liberty to advocate an amendment which will relieve the fair sex of the requirement, but it is sheer nonsense to scold registration officers for compelling compliance with the law.

But why should the women who have been crying for equal political rights demand a special exemption in their favor? There are no exemptions or exceptions in equal rights. It is as necessary that women voters should be identified by description as men.

That wholesome necessity is not disposed of by saying the registrars are mean, nasty, curious old things. Nobody will look at the register to see how old is Ann. And the clamor for political equality does not harmonize with a demand for a sex privilege which cannot be conceded without violating the law. Let Ann give her age like a man.

It is stated in the dispatches that Russia will recognize the Chinese republic and give the new government her moral support, provided the independence of Mongolia is acknowledged. Which means that Russia will take Mongolia as her fee for giving the Sun government her favor and countenance, for the independence of Mongolia is a mere pretense. If it can be officially separated from China it is certain to become the prey of Russia. Should China acknowledge Mongolia to be independent, the powers could not take that province into consideration in dealing with the Chinese government. This phase of the situation is disturbing the governments of England, France, Germany and the United States because of the patent fact that detaching Mongolia from the Chinese empire means attaching it to the dominions of the Czar. In short, it will be the beginning of the dismemberment of China, which Secretary Hay once prevented.

HOROSCOPE FOR 1912

—NEW YORK WORLD.

Twenty Years Ago Today

District Attorney George W. Reed will be married January 14 to Mrs. Georgia A. Brown of West Oakland. The wedding will take place at the home of Robert Graham, brother-in-law of Mrs. Brown.

The contest of George Godfrey's will begins this afternoon. His widow filed an application to be appointed administratrix of his estate and alleges that he left no will. This means a fight. She has retained W. R. Davis and W. W. Foote.

The World's Fair directors of Alameda county have secured the offices of the Oakland Cab and Carriage Company on Eighth street near Broadway for their permanent headquarters.

Dr. Mary Wood Allen has been lecturing at the Chabot Home on "The Needs of Girls." We trust she did not forget the pressing need of seal skin sacques.

Few who watch the grave and professional manner in which Dr. Roberdean Harmon moves about would take him to be one of the best amateur scullers in the state, but it is a fact that he is classed among the best.

J. T. Moran, the popular baseball manager, who has stood so nobly by this city, said yesterday that baseball matters appeared to be badly mixed up at this time, owing to the indefiniteness of the league situation.

Victor H. Metcalf has been elected attorney for the Home Savings Bank.

The owners of the Piedmont water works are pleased over another strike made by the tunnelers in the employ of the company. The strike was made while the men were at work in what is known as the Dingee tunnel. It is estimated now that the daily flow of the tunnel will be 50,000 gallons.

"The Devil's Auction" played to a large audience last night at the Oakland Theater. Next week the attraction will be Charles Hoyt's "A Texas Steer."

In the suit of Henry A. Temple against W. P. Hammon to recover $1337.19 for prune trees sold the defendant has put in a counter claim for $5000 damages, alleging that he ordered one kind of prune trees and received another.

Detective Denny Holland has recovered from an attack of pneumonia. He was out on the streets yesterday.

Maurice J. Collins departed yesterday for Kentucky, where he will enter the Louisville Dental College.

Beauty is only skin deep, especially in the case of the girl who has no fortune.

IN OAKLAND

Every Claim Is Backed by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Oakland, what can it be?

E. A. Stevens, 1611 Twenty-third avenue, Oakland, Cal., says: "For thirty years I was afflicted with kidney complaint. It came on suddenly; a sharp twinge in my back threw me from my chair to the floor. I gradually grew worse and I was sure to suffer if I lifted anything heavy. It was quite likely that my kidneys were first weakened by the jarring I received while riding over rough country roads and on trains. The kidney secretions passed too frequently, I felt weak and tired and had a poor appetite. The doctors did not seem able to help me and seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I decided to try them. In three days after I began their use I passed a gravel stone and as I continued taking this remedy I steadily improved. I am today free from kidney complaint and Doan's Kidney Pills alone have brought about this change. I am seventy-four years of age and I am much stronger and healthier than most persons of my years. I have nothing but praise for Doan's Kidney Pills and will be glad to tell any kidney sufferer of my experience with them."

THE ICONOCLASTS

Fair Phryne, they say, was not shameless;
The fact has been recently aired
That her classic existence was blameless,
As white as the bosom she bared.
We'd got the idea in our noddle
Her conduct was far from correct,
But they tell us that she was a "model"
In every respect.

Now Sappho is cleared of the fable
That wedded romance to her name;
She lived (so they tell us by cable)
A model and virtuous dame.
Her conduct was rigidly proper
In spite of her amorous rime,
And gents who attempted to cop her
But wasted their time.

What next? Will they tell us that Thais
Was prudent and proper and prim?
That a gentleman's chances with Lais
(In a manner of speaking) were slim?
Was Salome a saint petticoated,
The victim of scandalous runes?
Were the lips of Aspasia devoted
To prisms and prunes?

Away with your critical history!—
Its findings we look at askance.
Shall these dames be denied of mystery,
These heroines robbed of romance?
Shall any old science professor
With cherished traditions get gay?
No! A health to Dame Gossip, who—bless her!—
Preserved them for aye!

OLD FIRM TO BE REOPENED

W. B. Greenebaum Will Lease Premises Now Occupied by Howell-Dohrmann.

Mr. W. B. Greenebaum, for many years in the jewelry business in this city at 127 San Pablo avenue, and recently returned from an extended European trip, has leased the building now occupied by Howell-Dohrman Company on Thirteenth street, between Washington and Clay streets. Mr. Greenebaum intends to remodel the entire building, sub-letting stores and lofts, and occupying part of the ground floor himself with a complete jewelry and optical business under the firm name of Greenebaum & Co. Returning, as he does, into the Oakland field with the many new European ideas acquired on his trip to the continent, Mr. Greenebaum will undoubtedly find an excellent clientele from our city's best citizens. He will have a new and up-to-date stock and expert jewelers and optometrists. He expects to meet all of his old friends as well as new, putting forth every endeavor that money and science can obtain in making this one of the first jewelry and optical establishments in the city.

FIFTY CHILDREN TAKEN INTO HOME

Ladies' Relief Society Issues a Report of Work for Year 1911.

Fifty children were admitted to the Ladies' Relief Society Home of this city during 1911. Twenty-eight were Americans, twenty-four foreigners, seven half-foreigners and one of unknown nationality. According to the report submitted by Miss Jessie Campbell, corresponding secretary of the organization, at the annual meeting of the board of managers and directors, there were no orphans, but twenty-four were registered as half- orphans, and both parents of thirty-five of them were living. Forty-three were dismissed. The home was relieved of thirty-eight children by relatives of the little ones.

There are at present sixty-seven inmates in the Ladies' Relief Society Home. Forty-seven are in the Children's home and twenty in the nursery.

Several applications were made in the Home for Aged Women of the Ladies' Relief Society but there were no admissions during the year. Twenty-five were in the Home on January 1, 1911, but three died. At present there are twenty-two domiciled in the old people's department. There are a number of rooms vacant.

Mrs. Spencer Browne, recording secretary of the society, reported that the legacies of T. L. Barker of $5000 and that same sum from the late William E. Dargie, have been set aside for the endowment fund.

The May fete held at Mosswood Park last spring netted $600 to the institution. The proceeds derived from the benefit baseball game of the Athenian and Nile Clubs added $200 to the treasury.

With the co-operation of the philanthropic people of this city the splendid work of the society will be continued. Plans will be formulated for the purpose of raising money for the home. For many years the treasury has been replenished by the proceeds of the May fete. The directors and managers of the society will confer with the advisory board in the near future in regard to the form of entertainment to be arranged for increasing the finances of the institution.

CROWD SMASHES RAILWAY FENCE

200 Men Wreck Board Wall Erected by the Southern Pacific.

RICHMOND, Jan. 11.—A crowd consisting of nearly two hundred able-bodied men assembled last night about 10 o'clock at the Southern Pacific crossing on Macdonald avenue and tore down the high board fence recently built by that company to keep pedestrians from crossing the tracks.

The action is not a surprise to the residents of this city, for it has been current rumor for several days that such a move would be made. The men made short work of the fence and before any of the local police could arrive upon the scene it was demolished and several pistol shots were fired in the air by the crowd.

Agent Stivers has notified the officials of the company and several special police have been detailed to ascertain if possible who the leaders of the movement were. As to whether the fence will remain down or be re-built is a topic of lively discussion all over Richmond.

LEFT IN AUTOMOBILE SHE GETS DECREE OF DIVORCE

Marie Connolly secured an interlocutory decree of divorce in the superior court late yesterday from Emmet P. Connolly, a prominent plasterer of Alameda. Extreme cruelty and failure to provide were the grounds. MAKE ROOM FOR TWO NEW STARS

Place Found On United States Emblem by the War Department.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—It was said at the war department yesterday that in the rearrangement of the stars to the union or blue field of the national flag, due to the admission of New Mexico into the union, the additional star will probably be placed at the end of the second row and the Arizona star at the end of the fifth row.

Since July 4, 1896, the official arrangement of the stars in the blue field of the flag has been such as to permit the addition of more stars without destroying the symmetry of the approved design. In none of the acts of congress relating to the flag has the manner of arranging the stars been prescribed.

There was a lack of uniformity in the matter before the date named, but after July 4, 1896, when Utah was admitted to the union, the 45 stars in the flag were arranged in six rows, the first, third and fifth rows having eight stars each and the second, fourth and sixth rows seven stars each.

In the case of Oklahoma a rearrangement of the stars was made by a joint board of army and navy officers in 1908. Under that arrangement, which will prevail until the star of New Mexico is added, there are eight stars in the first, third, fourth and sixth rows and seven stars in the second and fifth rows.

NEW PEACE TREATY PLAN IS OFFERED

Lodge Hands Amendment to Resolution as Suggested by Secretary Knox.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Supporters of the general arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France were encouraged yesterday in their hope for early ratification of the pacts when a plan for amending the resolution of ratification rather than the treaties themselves was advanced before the senate committee on foreign relations.

The proposed amendment to the resolution of ratification would preserve to the senate all its prerogatives and would be binding on this country.

The senate would be given an opportunity to pass upon all matters to be submitted to arbitration, but the treaties would be left intact and no further negotiations would be required.

This apparent solution of a vexed situation followed a conference early in the day between Senator Lodge of the senate committee on foreign relations and Secretary Knox. The secretary said there never was an intention to abrogate or abridge the powers of the senate.

It was understood when Lodge left the department of state that there was an understanding that the new agreement would set aside the Root and other pending amendments to the treaties.

The amendments probably will be made the subject of a supplemental report to the senate from the foreign relations committee. It provides that all special arrangements, submitting any questions decided by the joint high commission to be justifiable under article 3 of the treaties, shall also be submitted to the senate for ratification in the same manner as an agreement presented by the president under the treaties.

SAY TAFT OFFERED TO QUIT CAMPAIGN

Friends Make Public Letter to Roosevelt; Colonel's Reply Chivalric.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Jan. 11.—Close friends of Colonel Roosevelt here say that a fair and well-understood working agreement has been arranged between President Taft and himself. It came about in this way, it is explained:

Several weeks ago Colonel Roosevelt received a letter from President Taft saying in substance that he did not want to run again and was perfectly willing to relinquish all claims to a second term, providing Colonel Roosevelt would take the field and allow his friends to name him as a candidate at the coming national convention.

The generosity of President Taft's offer produced a tremendous effect on Roosevelt. It aroused all the chivalric impulses of his nature. His reply was quick and to the point, namely that under no circumstances would he stand in the way of the President's boom.

With this understanding, amicably agreed to on both sides, Taft then announced that he was a candidate, and only death would prevent his keeping in the race.

PLAN FOR CONVENTION.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 11.—Directors of the National Association of Master Plumbers, in session here today, finished their work of preparing for the national convention of the organization, which meets in Salt Lake City next summer.

BRANDER MATHEWS SEES WAR COMING IN 1930

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—In spite of the movement for universal peace, the United States probably will find itself engaged in another war in about 1930, according to Professor Brander Mathews, head of the department of dramatic literature at Columbia.

Professor Mathews is an ardent supporter of the arbitration movement, but he says that the law of a succession of events will count more than all arbitration movements put together.

Professor Mathews believes that if such a war occurs the United States is apt to be in the wrong.

"With the rapid increase of wealth and population," he said, "our nation is likely to take the part of the bully."

"MAIL ORDER" MATCH DECLARED LEGITIMATE

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 11.—"Mail order" matches are usually legitimate, according to the Kansas City court of appeals.

Commenting on the case of Henry Hartwig of Columbia, who, after winning a wife as the result of advertising in the St. Louis papers, sued for divorce because he was told that his wife had once served a jail sentence, the court remarked:

"It appears that the plaintiff suffered from the trial court because he advertised for a wife. The state law does not condemn this method, but allows men to procure wives in their own way."

SPECULATOR CONVICTED.

STOCKTON, Jan. 11.—George Ogle, a real estate speculator, said to be wanted in San Diego and other cities along the Pacific coast for swindling, was convicted here of passing a fictitious check. It required the jury but five minutes to reach a verdict.

FUN RULES BILL THIS WEEK AT BELL THEATER

TEXAS TOMMY DANCERS.

Vilmos Westony, the pianist who gets humor out of the piano as well as Wagnerian music, and the tabloid version of Lew Field's "The Girl Behind the Counter" win much applause at the Bell theater this week; not forgetting the Texas Tommy dances also.

Westony plays "Alexander's Ragtime Band" as Chopin would write it in funeral march style and does other pianistic tricks.

Nat Fields and Lottie Fremont appropriate most of the laughs in Lew Fields' sketch. Fields "tends bar" at a soda water fountain in a department store and with the aid of a compressed air fountain and an inebriated woman raises laughs. Some stunningly dressed show girls and "ponies" aid the picture.

Art Adair in yokel costume plays musical instruments cleverly.

W. J. Sullivan and Clarice Pasquelena in a skit of stage life are full of humor. The woman, clad in a harem skirt and quite ready with facial grimaces, wins laughter.

Nat Phillips and Daisy Merritt characterize foreign types, appearing in a laughable playlet "A. C. O. D. Package."

The "Texas Tommy" dancers, Bernard Mose and Adelaide Richards, create much interest in their rendition of this dance, and while they occupy the stage, are favored with continued applause.

'MUSHED' 300 MILES TO COLLEGE

Alaska's Icy Breath Could Not Chill's Youth's Ardor for Knowledge.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Jan. 11.—Ambition to obtain a college education surmoundted great obstacles in the case of C. R. Vrang, who has registered at the university. One month ago Vrang was in the wilds of Alaska, 300 miles from the nearest railroad. Deciding to enter college, he left the mining company with which he was employed and "mushed" it alone the 300 miles, with the mercury hovering around 50 degrees below zero during the entire time.

The days were only four hours long, but despite this Vrang reached the railroad in less than two weeks, boarding a train at White's Pass. It required six powerful locomotives to pull the train through the snow drifts in the pass.

UNDERTAKER SEEKS TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

STOCKTON, Jan. 11.—As a means of collecting his bill for the funeral of Mrs. Annie McGimm, which he alleges has not been paid, Charles Ball, a local undertaker, has filed a petition asking that he be appointed administrator of the estate, which consists of real property in Tuolumne county.

It is averred by the undertaker that the deceased died in 1908 and left a will by the terms of which she excluded the immediate members of her family from sharing in the estate and bequeathed it to Mrs. Tillie Egan of this city; and furthermore, that the will, though filed in March, 1910, has not been probated. As a creditor of the estate the undertaker seeks to be appointed administrator.

CUSTED MAYOR AGAIN SEEKS SEATTLE OFFICE

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 11.—Former Mayor Hyram C. Gill, who was ousted from office at the recall election last winter, filed his nomination petition for Mayor yesterday, and his name will appear on the ballot at the non-partisan primary election to be held next month. Gill was elected Mayor in 1910 on an open-town platform, and had served less than a year when the recall was invoked against him. The administration of the police department was the campaign issue, and in the election in which the newly enfranchised women of Washington participated for the first time, George H. Dilling defeated Gill by 5000 votes.

SAN JOSE SEEKS SESSION OF DEVELOPMENT BOARD

SAN JOSE, Jan. 11.—Two hundred excursionists, bent on bringing the semi-annual convention of the California Development Board to San Jose in June, left here this morning on a luxurious special train for Los Angeles, where the development board will be in session Friday and Saturday. The excursion is to be run under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce. J. T. Brooks and V. A. Scheller of San Jose will make addresses and Mayor Charles W. Davison will present the invitation of San Jose to have the June convention meet here.

MAETERLINCK'S WIFE PLAYS IN HIS OPERA

BOSTON, Jan. 11.—Georgette Le Blanc appeared at the Boston Opera House last night for the first time in this country as Melisande in the Debussy opera "Pelleas and Melisande," based on the drama written by her husband, Maurice Maeterlinck.

The performance was one of the most notable in the three years' history of the opera house. M. Riddez of the Metropolitan Opera Company appeared as Pelleas. Andre Caplet conducted.

TEACHERS STEAL SAYS BOOK DEALER

Accuser Admits Collecting Money and Agreeing Not to Prosecute.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Remarkable disclosures of wholesale thefts of books and other articles by teachers employed in local and suburban schools were made at a hearing of the Glendale school board last night by F. D. Jones, proprietor of a book store in Los Angeles.

Jones declared that he had a number of confessions signed by teachers who had taken things from his store and he had collected sums ranging from $40 to $100 from them for a promise not to prosecute. He said that he used the confessions as a club to compel them to trade at his store. The principal of a Los Angeles school, he declared, had become a better customer than ever since he was caught pilfering. The money obtained by this system, Jones averred, went to charity.

The disclosures were made during the course of a hearing of charges against two Glendale teachers, both of whom were exonerated.

EMPIRE GOWN TO BE TABOOED

Every Woman Must Look Like a Stovepipe and But Little Larger.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—This is what American women will wear the coming year, as disclosed today by the style congress held here by the Lady Tailors and Dressmaker's Association of America:

No hobble skirt. Dresses must be two and a half yards wide, three-fourths of a yard wider than the hobble. They must be short—three inches from the ground. Blue and white are the colors, and the materials, whipcords.

Jackets are to be 26 or 28 inches long, close fitting. Empire effects must be forgotten. If any waist line is affected it must be "at the waist, or lower." Revers and sailor collars will be tabooed, but collars will be different colored than the coats. No changes are ordered in plain tailored gowns or suits.

The announcement was made last night in advance of the dressmakers' show tomorrow.

GOVERNOR SIGNS IMPORTANT BILLS

Five of Them Apply to the Office of Registrar of Voters.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Six bills passed by the legislature and all originating in the Senate, were signed yesterday by the Governor. Five allow supervisors to create the office of registrar of voters and the sixth, Senate bill No. 12, is the industrial accident board measure, which omits farmers, orchardists and vineyardists from the list of employers who are obliged to report to the board on accidents.

FEDERATION OF LABOR AGAINST "SPEEDING UP"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor has condemned the so-called scientific management system recently installed in various industrial plants, and talked of for governmental plants.

"Considering the rapid rate at which American workmen now are asked to labor," said the council, "the subject of so-called 'efficiency' schemes has been considered by the council at length. The title is a misnomer and the schemes are simply calculated to induce 'speeding up' to a stilll higher rate, undermining the health and increasing the accident and death rate of the workers."

STANFORD ENROLLMENT REPORTED ON INCREASE

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 11.—Figures given out by the registrar's office show that this year's registration surpasses that of January, 1911, in both total enrollment and in the number of students entering this semester. The total registration yesterday was 1442, against 1379 last year. Sixty new students entered while in 1911 fifty-seven was the number. Forty students who have been absent one or more semesters returned yesterday, showing a gain of eight over last year's figures. Yesterday's registration is expected to swell these figures considerably.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

MOFFAT ROAD TO TOUCH SALT LAKE

Denver Northwestern & Pacific Will Tap Rich Coal and Farming Lands.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 11.—The Rocky Mountain News here today says that financial arrangements have been completed for extending the Denver, Northwestern & Pacific Railroad (Moffat road), from Steamboat Springs, Colo., to Salt Lake City.

"Construction work will be begun this year," according to the News, "and the date is put in some quarters as early as May 1. It is understood that the company hopes to begin work not later than June 1. The tunnel and extension are to be financed by French and American capital, and the Denver men now at the head of the road are to remain in control.

"The cost of the extension and the tunnel will be about $16,000,000. The distance from Steamboat Springs to Salt Lake City by the route the road will follow is about 390 miles. It will pass through some of the finest coal land in the world, and some of the richest agricultural land in the country, in Western Colorado and in Eastern Utah."

TENDENCIES AND HABITS OF OSTRICH WERE COW'S

SAN RAFAEL, Jan. 11.—Two pounds of wire nails, a piece of barbed wire fencing, a glass bottle stopper and odds and ends of old iron were found in the stomach of a cow slaughtered at a local butcher shop. The cow had been purchased from Hugh McCurdy and was in a healthy condition.

The various articles were all inclosed in a small sack in the animal's stomach, and in no way interfered with her digestive functions. The nails were all about 1½ inches in length, and, with the pieces of iron and several strands of barbed wire, made a bulky assortment weighing about two pounds.

ST. RITA'S HALL BURNS.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.—St. Rita's Hall, the oldest of the group of buildings at Villa Nova College, was destroyed by fire today. Only three walls of the historic structure remain standing. College authorities estimate the loss at $100,000.

Charles Durham, Lovington, Ill., has succeeded in finding a positive cure for bed wetting. "My little boy wet the bed every night clear through on the floor. I tried several kinds of kidney medicine and I was in the drug store looking for something different to help him when I heard of Foley Kidney Pills. After he taken them two days we could see a change and when he had taken about two thirds of a bottle he was cured. That is about six weeks ago and he has not wet in bed since." CASCARETS FOR A SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Gently but Thoroughly Cleanse and Regulate Your Stomach, Liver and Bowels While You Sleep.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means indigestion; a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

WORK OF HIGHWAY SOON TO COMMENCE

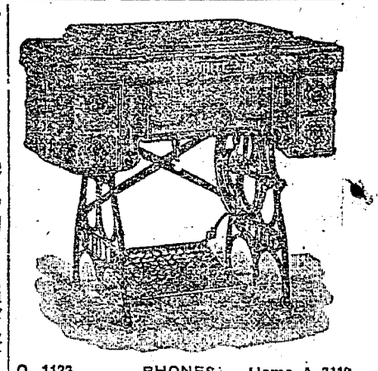

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—The seven division engineers recently named by the State Highway Commission have been ordered to their various districts and will establish headquarters in Redding, Willits, Fresno, San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Luis Obispo and Sacramento and from these points they will carry on their work in connection with the development of the State's great system of good roads.

The commission is now engaged in the preliminary work of a routine nature, and has reached a point where the services of its division engineers in their respective territories are necessary. The expenditure of a portion of the $18,000,000 bonds issue for actual construction work is to be commenced in a not far distant future.

AMERICAN HOUNDS PROVE LION KILLERS

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Paul J. Rainey, a millionaire, who has returned from British East Africa, where he has been hunting lions with dogs, yesterday said: "I've killed seventy-four lions in eleven months, sixteen in one day. I have found that the only way to get lions is with dogs. The government sent me to kill some lions which they had unsuccessfully tried to poison in the ostrich farm reserve. My dogs enabled me to kill them all.

"My dogs are American bear hounds, bred in Mississippi. There's a good deal of bloodhound in them. They are of the breed which the old planters had before the Civil war. Often mine have got a leopard down and killed it."

PEOPLE OF TEXAS PANIC STRICKEN

Menace of Meningitis Results in Abandonment of Public Gatherings.

DALLAS, Jan. 11.—The menace of meningitis in Dallas and other cities of North and east Texas has instilled such fear among all classes of the population that public gatherings practically have been abandoned. Even church meetings have given up and society gatherings are rare; saloon keepers say fear of the meningitis epidemic has caused a serious reduction in their trade, while women's and men's club meetings scheduled for the next ten days have been postponed.

While the state board of health yesterday found that epidemic conditions have improved, there is no letup in the fight against the malady.

INVESTIGATING CAUSE OF WOMAN'S DEATH

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Detective Thomas Burke is investigating the circumstances of the death of Miss Elsa Blanco, a glove maker, 23 years old, who succumbed today as the result of an alleged operation. The woman was taken to Trinity Hospital on Tuesday after the operation had been performed, but despite the efforts of the physician she died at an early hour this morning. From information received it is believed that Miss Blanco, herself, performed the operation, although the police are making inquiries. The girl lived with her mother, Mrs. Quijada, at 2149 Mission street.

WRECKERS ARE REMOVING DEBRIS

Vaults in the Burned Equitable Building and Contents Are Intact.

Precarious Condition of the Walls Hampers Efforts of Workers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Wreckers began today clearing away the debris and ice which encase the safe deposit vaults in the burned Equitable Life Assurance Society building. The vaults are said to be intact and their contents of half a billion of dollars in securities safe. The wreckers are hampered by the precarious condition of the walls on two sides, which may fall at any time.

The vaults of the Equitable Life are known to have withstood the flames, but they will not be opened until they have completely cooled off. Officers of the society say there is not a doubt that the $300,000,000 in securities of the society are unharmed.

It is announced that the 90,000 policies on which the Equitable had loaned something between $70,000,000 and $100,000,000 had been found unharmed. Securities are already being removed from the vaults of the Mercantile Trust Company.

Shortly after the opening of the New York Stock Exchange today notice was posted that "the law committee gives notice that delivery of securities between parties directly or indirectly affected by the fire in the Equitable building are further delayed until January 15."

THIS THIEF WAS DISCRIMINATING

Simply Robbed the One Who "Is More Deadly Than the Male."

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—It is not often that a highwayman discriminates in favor of the less godly of the species in perpetrating a crime upon the public streets. In the great majority of cases where a couple has been held up, the woman has been allowed to go without being deprived of her valuables. The order was reversed at a late hour last night, however, when an armed thug with a revolver jumped out upon K. Grandall, engineer on the steamer Beaver, and Miss Josephine Cassidy, of 413A Shotwell street, whom he was escorting to her home. As soon as the command to throw up hands had been obeyed, the footpad took from Miss Cassidy $3 and a watch, paid no attention to Grandall and made his escape.

STUDENTS TO BE GIVEN ADVICE

Faculty to Assist Scholars in the Selection of Future Occupations.

The members of the faculty of the Manual Training and Commercial High School are at work upon the problem of "Vocational Guidance." Because of the industrial character of the school the teachers are very often called upon to assist the students in the selection of courses which will prepare them somewhat definitely for vocations.

The teachers have had frequent faculty conferences in the past upon this phase of their school duties and opportunities. A few days ago a committee was appointed by Principal Fisher to investigate the subject of "Vocational Guidance" more thoroughly with the view of inaugurating some definite system for the school. Each member of the committee is to read some publication on the subject, and make a report of the information and suggestions collected to the faculty. The principal is putting himself in touch with schools where this matter is being considered, and has reason to expect that some plan will be evolved for co-operation among the members of the faculty, the parents, and a committee of citizens, so that the wide field represented by the school may be covered and the best results secured.

MRS. WESTPHAL TO BE BURIED ON SATURDAY

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Dora Westphal, who died yesterday after a four months' illness, will be held Saturday afternoon for the Taylor undertaking parlors at Fifteenth and Jefferson streets. Mrs. Westphal was the wife of J. C. Westphal, owner of the Bay City Milling Co., and of much valuable business property in this city.

Mrs. Westphal came to California 59 years ago, living first in San Francisco where her husband was an extensive real estate owner. Mr. and Mrs. Westphal came to Oakland to live 35 years ago, making their home at 1463 Eighth street, where they have since resided.

Mrs. Westphal had a wide circle of friends in this and the other bay cities will regret to hear of her death for she was highly esteemed for her many fine qualities of character. Her husband and five sons survive her. The sons are Theodore, William, John, Fred and George Westphal. The family is one of the best known in Oakland, both by reason of long residence in this city and through the prominent position occupied in the business world.

SOCIALISTS GAIN GROUND.

COLOGNE, Jan. 11.—The Volks Zeitung, in an election forecast today, predicts that only 185 members of the reichstag will be returned in Friday's election, leaving 212 for rebalioting. It divides the results as follows: Right and center, 135; left, 50, of which 46 will be Socialists. The paper does not try to predict the ultimate results, but says that the chances for the members of the left in the after elections are much the best.

44 BELOW ZERO IN THE DAKOTAS

Temperature Drops 30 Degrees Over Night in State of Colorado.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—"No moderation of consequence can yet be predicted," said Weather Forecaster Cox today when asked regarding the prospect of an early end to the cold wave. The severest temperature reported today was at Pembina, N. D.—44 degrees below zero. The Arctic conditions were working southward and St. Louis expected 6 below tonight.

The Chicago conditions, though distressing, are somewhat less low than at places not helped by the influence of the Great Lakes. La Crosse, Wis., was a typical example, reporting the eleventh day of continued below zero weather.

SNOWING IN COLORADO.

DENVER, Jan. 11.—Snow began falling generally throughout the state today, accompanied by an average drop of 30 degrees in temperature with the mercury hovering close to zero. Snow has been falling steadily for a week in the higher ranges of the Continental divide and railroads report snowdrifts in cuts and mountain passes ranging from 10 to 15 feet deep, necessitating the constant use of rotary plows.

The thaw of the last two days saved thousands of cattle on the eastern Colorado plains, but stock men fear that a continuance of the present storm means serious losses, if it should develop into a blizzard, because of the weakened conditions of the herds.

50 BELOW AT MALTA.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 11.—Extreme cold continued throughout Northern and Eastern Montana today. The lowest temperature reported was 50 degrees below zero, at Malta. It was 15 below at Helena. Trains are running from 12 to 15 hours late.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Nat Goodwin's full name went into the official records of San Francisco yesterday, when a mortgage for raising money to enable him to settle with Edna Goodrich was put on record. The much-married actor's complete title is Nathaniel Carl Goodwin Jr.

Among his assets are an apartment house on Sacramento street, near Octavia, and on this property he has borrowed $28,000 from John Rosenfeld's Sons, paying 7 per cent interest. The loan was arranged last Monday by T. H. Dudley, who has a power of attorney to represent Goodwin and Mrs. Edna Goodrich Goodwin until the amount to be given her is paid.

The parties have agreed that $55,000 shall be remitted to her attorneys, House, Grossman & Vorhaus of New York city, for her, and that these attorneys shall have $5000 additional for their services. Last month $15,000 was paid. This week $30,000 more must be sent, and the last installment of $15,000 is payable before April 16th next. The trustee, T. H. Dudley, who resides at Ocean Park, Los Angeles county, which Goodwin now says is his home town, is to receive $8000. When this agreement is fully carried out Goodwin is to recover full control of his estate.

Another loan may have to be effected when the time for the remaining payment arrives.

Weds Japanese

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 11. — The first mixed wedding of the year occurred yesterday when a well educated Japanese married a beautiful, well-dressed young woman, both of Sacramento. They said they had come to Vancouver to be married and would probably make their home in Chicago or San Francisco.

His name was Kay Walanabe, and she gave hers as Hazel Harvey. They were accompanied by Fred Pancoast of this city as a witness. The Japanese was dressed in a light suit with a high-priced overcoat, light colored material, and wore glasses and tan shoes. The bride was dressed in a tight-fitting blue serge suit, a green shirtwaist, dark beaver cloth hat, adorned with a handsome French plume. In a neat little pocket she carried a gold watch.

"We came here to be married because the laws of California would not let us marry there," said the bride.

Burned by Wire

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 11. — Two women were severaly burned by a live wire yesterday and were rescued finally after a crowd afraid to touch them had watched their agony for some time. The victims were Mrs. A. L. Donovan and Mrs. O. L. Smith, both of 495 Williams avenue.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Donovan were dragging their children on a sled when Mrs. Donovan stepped on the wire, which was concealed in the snow. The shock knocked her down. Mrs. Smith, thinking her companion had fainted, started to lift Mrs. Donovan from the ground, when she, too, was stricken and thrown to the icy walk, falling upon the wire.

Neither woman could move, and a crowd gathered. Seeing the wire, the people were afraid to go near the women, and meanwhile the wire was burning through the clothing and flesh of Mrs. Smith. Finally two men threw a rope about the women's feet and dragged them from the wire. Both were resuscitated, but Mrs. Smith was so badly burned that it was necessary to send her to a hospital.

Rescues Child

CHICAGO, Jan. 11. — Mrs. T. L. Oatke, an amateur painter known to Chicago artists, fought her way through flames and smoke to the second story of her home in Oak Park yesterday, rescued her year-old daughter, rolled with her down a stairway and crawled out of the door just as the roof and upper story crashed in behind her. Outside of a few burns and the effects of smoke, neither she nor the baby was injured. The house was destroyed.

Kills Sweetheart

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Jan. 11. — Jealousy over his school-girl sweetheart led Edward Clark, aged 19, to kill Hazel Cooper, aged 16, here yesterday. The girl stopped at the home of her sister, where Clark roomed, on her way to High school. Clark was there. He upbraided her for her supposed partiality to other boys and then shot her through the heart. In an attempt at suicide the boy shot himself through the lungs. He is in a hospital and may recover.

Wills All to Wife

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11. — The will of the late William C. Greene, known as the "mining king" of Cananea, Sonora, Mexico, who died in Cananea August 5th last was filed for probate here yesterday. Colonel Greene in his will directed that all of his property, personal and real, be given to his wife, Mary Proctor Greene.

The petition accompanying the will gave the value of the property in Los Angeles as $50,000, but placed no estimate as to the worth of the entire estate.

The will is dated November 26, 1910. Mrs. Greene is named as executrix without bond, Colonel Green, however, recommending that if she decided to dispose of the mining property she be guided by the advice of James H. Kirk, a lifelong friend of Colonel Greene.

Saves Husband

CHICO., Jan. 11. — William A. Conway, who was arrested Monday night on a charge of attempting to murder his wife with chloroform, is not to be prosecuted. His wife, on learning that his conviction would mean his imprisonment in a penitentiary, refused to go on with the case and the complaint was dismissed. Could he have been prosecuted on a misdemeanor charge she was willing to go ahead, she said.

There was no way open to convict Conway without the aid of his wife, so the case had to be dismissed. Conway is said to have administered chloroform after telling his wife it was medicine.

Weds ex-Mayor

PETALUMA, Jan. 11.—A quiet wedding took place in this city yesterday afternoon at St. John's Episcopal church, when ex-Mayor William C. Keig claimed as his bride Miss Alice Graham, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Graham of this city. The groom served this city for several years as Councilman and Mayor. The bride is one of the most charming members of the younger set of this city and sister of Captain Fred Graham of San Francisco.

ONE BIG LAUGH IS CAMERA THEATER SHOW

John Bunny, famous comedian, will be at the Camera theater today in one of the most laughable pictures ever seen on the screen.

Too fat for comfort and fearing an increase in avoirdupois, Bunny purchases a vapor bath, guaranteed to make the fat thin and do the trick with neatness.

In his anxiety to make a trial of the bath he forgets to lock the library door. He places a newspaper on top of the enclosure and with his head protruding like a turtle, he tries to read the news of the day while he is taking off weight. The door blows open and the draft sweeps the newspaper off the top of the bath. In his efforts to secure it and his fear of the maid entering the room he finds himself in a pretty fix. He is moving about like a sandwich man when a sneak thief enters, and finding our fat friend helpless, proceeds to help himself to Bunny's clothing, containing his coin and jewelry. Giving Bunny the laugh, and gracefully bidding him a fond farewell, he closes the door and leaves.

The thief had scarcely taken his departure, when Fatty's wife, with two lady friends, enter the room and once more he finds himself an object of ridicule and laughter in the eyes of the visiting ladies, very much to the embarrassment of his wife. Finally escaping from his predicament, he proceeds to make junk of the vapor bath, consigning it to the wood pile.

This picture alone is well worth a visit to the Camera today, but there will be several other exceptional photoplays shown accompanied by appropriate music.

ALFRED DICKENS TO BE BURIED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—It has been decided by relatives of the late Alfred Tennyson Dickens, son of the English novelist, that the body of Mr. Dickens shall be buried in New York. It is now in a receiving vault at Trinity cemetery and as soon as weather conditions permit it will be buried.

The daughters of Dickens, who live in Australia, cabled here that they preferred the burial in London, but Dickens' sister, Mrs. Kate Perugini of London, took up the matter with her nieces and a cablegram was received from her saying "my nieces consent to burial in America."

Fresh Air the Great Beauty Specialist

(Copyright, 1912, Lillian Russell.)

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

THE greatest peril to human life which we have had to combat is tuberculosis. We all need fresh air, for fresh air in the lungs means pure blood in the body, and pure blood is health. If you only walk a few squares a day you can gain much if you will throw your shoulders back, lift up your chin and breathe deeply through your nose. Keep your mouth shut firmly, hold the air in your lungs a few seconds and then exhale through your nostrils slowly, and you will find you shortly will feel better in every way. Even the "black butterflies" which have perhaps given you a sleepless night will fly away to some other resting place after you have had a short walk in the open air and a half hour given to deep breathing.

Your eyes will become brighter, your complexion will show clear and rosy, nature will assert herself and beautify your face in a way that would be the despair of a beauty specialist. The skin, when you return from a ride or walk may need care, for the dust sifts into the pores and will produce a more or less drying effect upon it, but a brisk walk acts as a tonic, and you can see improvement immediately in your complexion as well as in your spirits.

Sometimes (but this is rare) a little eruption comes on the skin after walking in the wind. This, however, generally denotes a disordered liver. Continued and lengthy walks will also cure liver trouble, so if you have patience and no fear you can walk off any ills. Plant your feet firmly upon the good earth, look up with nothing between you and your Creator and feel for the moment that you are above the petty affairs of the world. Gather in fresh air and sunshine, express nothing but a reflection of these, and you will find much health and happiness. Then all the world will look better to you, for you will be able to love and appreciate all the world holds for you. Remember, one hour's walk in the fresh air will change blue to rose color.

EDITH S.—Put some alcohol in a flat dish and dip the finger nails in it. This dries the oil in the nails and they will harden. I am sending you a receipt for an astringent lotion for an oily skin and dietary for reducing flesh.

MRS. C. O.—Excessive perspiration is usually caused from rheumatism, gout, and diseases of the nervous system. Mild cases are benefited by bathing the affected surface in water as hot as it can be borne. One or two drams of alum to a pint of alcohol makes a useful wash. Dry powders dusted upon the surface are often effectual. The following is a good dry powder for that purpose: One ounce powdered alum, two ounces powdered orris root, two ounces powdered rice. Mix and dust on affected parts. The best way to get rid of blackheads is by coaxing the secretions out of the pores. Cleanse the face with a good cleansing cream, rubbing it in well for about five minutes. Rub what is left off with a soft cloth; then wash the face in warm water (not hot, for in time it will dry and yellow the skin) and a good soap, castile or any of the floating soaps. Do this before retiring, and in the morning cleanse the face with the cleansing cream. I am sending you the green soap treatment and the cold cream for blackheads, also rolling exercises for reducing the hips, and dietary.

G. S.—The white spots in the nails are caused from bruises and nothing will improve them; they will have to grow out. Send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope, and I shall send you complete instructions for manicuring.

L. E. L.—I do not think that trimming the eyelashes has any effect on the eyes. It is said to make them grow, but it is not always sucessful with grown persons. They should be trimmed with a pair of nail scissors. Afterwards, use an eyelash grower. Plain yellow vaseline is good. Melt the vaseline and apply to the roots of the lashes, but be careful that you do not get any in the eye, as oil of any kind irritates it.

LOUISE J.—I advise you to get some reliable proprietary for your corn. I am sending you the harmless recipe for developing the bust. Deep breathing also is good for rounding the throat and developing the bust.

—x—

GENEVIEVE—Superfluous hair on the face is an annoying beauty blemish, and I advise you to have it removed before the growth gets any heavier. Go to a reliable electrolysis, one who makes this work a specialty, and have it removed by electricity. It is quick and sure and is perfectly harmless if the work is done right. Peroxide is good to bleach the hair and one-third ammonia added to it will gradually kill the roots.

MRS. F. L. V.—The most effective way to remove stiff superfluous hair from the face is by electricity. Go to some reliable electrolysis and have it removed before the growth gets any heavier. There s nothing so annoying to beauty as superfluous hair. If the growth is light, like "fuzz," take one-third ammonia and two-thirds peroxide of hydrogen. The peroxide will bleach the hairs and the ammonia will gradually kill the roots. If you will send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope I shall send you complete instructions for manicuring.

YOUTH'S INVENTION TO DO WORK OF 30 WOMEN

SAN JOSE, Jan. 11.—Leslie Morton of Mountain View, in this county, has invented and patented a machine that promises to revolutionize the apricot and peach drying business, and threatens to throw thousands of women and girls out of summer employment, on which they have depended for years for a part of their living. Morton is a high school pupil.

The machine is a peach and apricot cutter, which, with the work of four men, will cut, pit and deposit on trays right side up 1500 boxes of fruit in a day. Not less than thirty women have heretofore been required to do that amount of cutting.

Judge Rizer paid the money to the clerk of the court.

They believe that both governments could be administered by one set of officers as well as by two separate sets and at a great saving of expense.

Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is, he might have been a wreck himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented. "They cured me of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so-called cures for years, without benefit and they also improved my sight. Now, at seventy, I am feeling fine." JOLO HEAD-HUNTERS AGAIN ON THE WARPATH

AMERICANS SHOT BY MOROS

Lieutenant McGee and One Private Wounded From Ambush

Second Cavalry Repulses the Tribesmen and Kills 26 of Them

MANILA, Jan. 11.—Twenty-six Moros were killed while they were attempting to ambush American troops on the Island of Jolo. In the fighting Lieutenant McGee of the Second cavalry was shot twice and one American soldier was wounded.

Brigadier-General John J. Pershing, commander of the Department of Mindanao, in a conversation declared that he believed this fight would mark the end of armed opposition by the Moros to American rule in the island of Jolo and more especially so in regard to the resistance against the order for general disarmament of the natives. The Moros, who lay in ambush for the American troops, on this occasion comprised, he said, the last of the remaining malcontents.

There were two officers named McGee in the Second cavalry—Lieutenant Oscar McGee and Second Lieutenant Hugh H. McGee. Lieutenant Oscar A. McGee was listed in the last official roster as being absent from the division.

R. CRANE LEAVES AUTOBIOGRAPHY

CHICAGO, Jan. 11. — A partly completed autobiography of Richard T. Crane, iron master and foe of higher education, who died suddenly here Monday, has been brought to light by friends of Crane. Whether it ever will be published has not been decided by the family.

Secrecy as to its contents is observed, but friends of Crane who have seen part of it describe it as a series of terse chapters in the history of his own industrial struggles and those of his company, with running comment upon the relation between the modern education fabric and industrialism.

Crane's will, which will dispose of an estate estimated at between $20,000,000 and $30,000,000, will not be opened for several weeks, it was intimated by his family today.

MRS. JACOBY GRANTED A DIVORCE

Wife of Alameda Sergeant of Police Turns Tables On Him.

He Makes Application for a Decree, But She Gets It On Deposition.

The suit for divorce brought by Walter O. Jacoby, sergeant of the Alameda police department, against Buelah Jacoby came up at a late hour yesterday afternoon before Superior Judge William H. Waste, and although Mrs. Jacoby was spending the day in Kansas City, Mo., she registered an innovation in Alameda county court circles by obtaining an interlocutory decree of divorce from Jacoby. Mrs. Jacoby was represented in court by her deposition, in the hands of Frank Bartlett, and the circumstances were so strongly in her favor, from the deposition, to the effect that she had been neglected, that Judge Waste waived the usual custom of having both parties appear in court, and granted her the decree.

The suit was filed by Walter O. Jacoby for desertion, and it was established that he sent his wife to Kansas City before it could be tried. From this point Mrs. Jacoby sent back her deposition confirming the testimony.

The divorce is the ending of a pretty romance which began when the couple arrived in Denver four years ago from St. Louis and were married at the Brown Palace hotel.

Mrs. Jacoby was formerly Miss Beulah Pixler. Her father was George Pixler, who was a well-known cotton grower near Mobile, Alabama. Jacoby was formerly a resident of St. Louis. His father was an eminent clergyman of that city.

After celebrating and announcing their marriage to a number of friends at the hotel in Denver the couple departed for the Pacific coast. Some days were spent in San Francisco and a few weeks later the husband secured the rental of a very pleasant home on Central avenue for his wife, and brought her to Alameda to reside.

LIFE WAS A SONG.

Life was a merry song, according to the husband's story. Jolly friends, suppers, wining and dining, but he said he could not reconcile himself to seeing his wife constantly smoke cigarettes and imbibe in wine to overflowing. With his former associations in life and bringing up he could not help trying to get his wife to discontinue. It was mutually agreed that the wife should depart for St. Louis and visit Jacoby's parents and remain there for an indefinite period. She departed. The visit was short, however, Mrs. Jacoby asserting that it was her privilege to take joy rides and return at an early hour in the morning without the interference of the clergyman's wife. Refusing to be questioned relative to such matters, she left the Jacoby home and departed for Kansas City, where she has since remained most of the time, but never returning to her husband in the meantime.

The next day after the marriage, it is claimed by Jacoby, the wife, who was nearly twelve years his senior, he having only just turned 21, came to him and in a most loving manner assured him that if either ever wanted to discontinue or separate it would be the other's privilege to agree. Everything was harmonious, there had been no quarreling, but the sudden marriage was stipulated by the wife as a reason for either wanting to revoke what had been done perhaps, even though there was no apparent reason at that time.

WOULDN'T LET HIM WORK.

Shortly after locating in Alameda Jacoby says he had a position offered him, and his wife absolutely refused to allow him to accept a means of supporting himself and wife, she assuring him that she had ample means for both of them as long as they lived. When discussing the point of supporting his wife Jacoby said:

"Well, she went away, and, according to agreement, neglected to support me. I did not make any fuss about it; just went on living in my own quiet way, which was not, to be sure, luxurious, but sufficient, even though perhaps not what my wife had been accustomed to, but I would have done my best had she permitted me to do so.

"I know my wife is a good woman, beautiful and adorable, but she had always had her own way and she preferred a Bohemian life to a quiet life at home amid refined friends such as I deemed were proper and elevating for a wife."

HAVENS HOME FROM TRIP EAST

Discovers That Cold in States On Other Side of California "Is Awful."

Refuses to Comment On Business and Other Conditions He Found.

Frank C. Havens has returned to Oakland after a business trip through the East, to which section of the country he went shortly before the holidays.

When asked this afternoon if he had any information to give out as the result of the trip Mr. Havens said:

"I made one important discovery as a result of my traveling, but that has already appeared in the papers."

Urged to elaborate on that discovery, Havens said:

"Well, I found out that the cold in the eastern states is awful."

Asked as to the length of time which he had spent on the trip, the capitalist answered:

"I go East every six weeks or so on business; in fact, I have made seven trips during the past twelve months. I have to keep going every now or then or else I will lose my reputation as a much-traveled man."

In answer to a question as to business and other conditions in the East, the speaker refused to make any comments. A request for information as to the length of his stay there and the places visited brought forth the statement that there was absolutely nothing interesting in his going and if he had anything to say in connection with the trip he would be glad to make it public.

"There is nothing about my return worth saying anything about" was the laughing close to the conversation.

SHRINERS PLAN TO GIVE A BIG ENTERTAINMENT

FRANK W. BILGER.

Plans for a big carnival and circus to be held the first week in April were formulated at a meeting of nobles of the Mystic Shrine in Aahmes temple, Eleventh street and Broadway, last night. Frank W. Bilger, illustrious potentate, was selected director-general by acclamation and the two other officers of the Shrine will act with him as a committee for further selection of sub-committees. The heads of these committees will act with three officers as an executive committee. Noble Taylor was chosen secretary; Noble McWilliams, assistant secretary, and Noble J. A. Hill, treasurer of the executive committee.

According to the tentative plans of the Shriners, the A. L. G. Barnes big three-ring wild animal circus, the only one of its kind in existence, will be retained for the affair. The arrangements will be entirely in the hands of the Shriners and in addition to the circus the members of Aahmes Temple will contribute stunts of their own, consisting of clown features, acrobatic performances and sideshows. The show will be held in the vicinity of Lake Merritt.

Instead of the usual circus rings there will be three great cages, in which the trained animals will perform. The equipment will include in all nearly 300 animals. There will be 47 ponies, 30 lions, 6 tigers trained by a woman, grizzly bears in song and dance, trained pigs, goats and leopards.

The circus will have a tent 110 feet by 240 feet in dimension and with a seating capacity of 4000. Herds of camels, elephants and numerous horses will add to the display.

The carnival and circus will be one of the most extensive entertainment features ever attempted by a local organization.

FOUR SHOT BY BANDIT TRIO

Portland Highwaymen Commit Bold Crimes in Rapid-Fire Order

Open Fire at Sight of Officer's Uniform; Get Little for Their Hard Work

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 11.—Three highwaymen held up two pedestrians at Park and Oak streets, in this city, compelled the proprietor of the La Salle Hotel at Tenth and Burnside streets, under force of arms, to hand them $35 from his till, and quickly repaired to a saloon at First and Burnside streets, where they shot Patrolman Amundson, Special Officer Edward Gassett and two bystanders, all within a few minutes, shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. They escaped after the shooting and at an early hour this morning had not been captured.

The desperadoes opened fire upon Amundson just as he was about to question them as to their intentions. He was shot through the right hand, receiving a painful, though not dangerous, wound. Special Officer Gassett rushed to Amundson's assistance and was shot through the neck. He is seriously wounded, but will live. Two of the patrons of the saloon were injured by the highwaymen's bullets. Each received a ball in the foot.

OPEN FIRE QUICK.

The robbers were so quick to open hostilities when they saw Amundson in his blue uniform that the patrolman had no time to draw his weapon. Gassett got his revolver from his holster, but he went down before he had a chance to use it. The men in the saloon were wounded as they sought to get out of range. They are both foreigners.

Special calls to headquarters sent a squad of downtown police after the thugs. One was traced to the foot of Burnside street, where he eluded pursuers. The other two were thought to have struck out for East Portland. From the two pedestrians held up at Park and Oak streets the robbers secured $8 and from the hotelkeeper $35.

150 NEW STUDENTS ENROLL AT THE UNIVERSITY

AGRICULTURAL HALL NEARS COMPLETION

State Institution to Begin the Regular Instruction On Monday.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Jan. 11.—With 150 new students enrolled, regular instruction will begin at the university next Monday for the spring semester, which will last until commencement, May 15.

Admission examinations began Tuesday and will close Saturday.

Most of the new students will be freshmen. Others will come from eastern or California Colleges or normal schools. There will also be many graduates of the University of California and of other institutions, coming to Berkeley for a professional course, or to pursue higher studies and investigations for a degree.

Courses have been arranged so that the newcomer may begin now, instead or waiting until the fall term, his work in engineering, commerce, letters, medicine, agriculture or practically anything else he wishes to study.

HAS MOST FRESHMEN.

The University of California this year contains a larger enrollment of freshmen than any other university in the United States, and is second in the total number of students enrolled.

It is expected that 1912 will be one of the most important years in the history of the state university. The imposing new agricultural building, situated on a knoll at the northeast corner of the campus, will be occupied at the beginning of the fall term.

At the same time, Prof. Gilbert N. Lewis will arrive from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology to become chairman of the chemistry department, and begin the task of developing it into the greatest research division of its kind in the west. Work is to begin this year upon the first wing of a $1,000,000 chemistry building, which is to be a part of the Hearst plan.

All the departments in the new Doe library will be ready at the beginning of the semester. The main part of the structure was erected at a cost of $850,000 from a bequest of $730,000 by Charles Franklin Doe and from the university's permanent building fund.

SUMMER SCHOOL WORK.

Arrangements are being made for the most elaborate curriculum of this year's summer school that has ever been undertaken.

The range of courses for the regular work beginning next Monday is remarkable. One may take advantage of an old-fashioned classical course, or enroll in social sciences, commerce, architecture, law, pedagogy, astronomy, applied sciences such as medicine, agriculture, and chemistry, or in civil, electrical, mechanical, mining, irrigation, sanitary, agricultural and structural engineering.

Admission to the university is open to any recommended high school graduate, or to anyone who can pass the entrance examination; tuition is free and the cost of living in Berkeley is moderate.

MANY EARN EXPENSES.

About one-third of the students earn their living expenses while in college, while a large proportion of the other two-thirds put in their summer vacations and Christmas holidays earning money for the following semester.

The university has a varied equipment of libraries, museums, shops and experimental gardens, besides its splendid library of 300,000 volumes. At the infirmary the health of the student is looked after, better than it would be, on the average, if he were at home. The custom of the institution leads most students to acquire the habit of healthful exercise on baseball and football field, track or tennis court, in the swimming pool. Military drill and gymnasium work are prescribed for all freshmen to start them right in the matter of constant exercise.

FEATURES FOR PUBLIC.

In the course of a year thousands of residents of the bay cities, who are not regular students, attend lectures during the day and evening, and through the university extension system people of the state, living at distant points, receive benefits of state university instruction. The farmers' courses at Davis and the farmers' demonstration train are other features of the university's varied useful activity which reach to all parts of the state.

GLEE CLUB'S TOUR OF NORTHWEST SUCCESS

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Jan. 11.—That the University Glee Club is having a successful tour of the Northwestern states is indicated by reports from cities in which it has given concerts.

The Telegram of Portland, Ore., says: "College men and women and undergraduates flocked to the Heilig Saturday night to listen to the program given by the University of California Glee Club. The program offered a pleasing variety of glees, solos and stunts." Even the rival attractions of the early New Year's celebrations did not militate noticeably against the audience which heard the club.

In Eugene, Ore., the club opened the program with the college yell, "Oski, Wow, Wow!" The newspapers in Moscow, Wash., announce that college spirit ran rampant at the theater between the audience of the glee club and a rival theater party organized by the Stanford University club.

RECEIVES ANNOUNCEMENT OF 1912 EXPOSITION

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Jan. 11.—President Wheeler, who is a member of the Advisory and Governing Board of the American Land and Irrigation Exposition, has received a notice regarding the 1912 exhibit, to be held in New York. The announcement follows: "The 1912 exhibit of this exposition will be held from November 15 to December 2, in a building which is larger than Madison Square Garden, where the 1911 Exposition was held. The 1912 New York Land Show will be held in the Seventy-first Regiment armory, an imposing, fire-proof and modern structure, between Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth streets and Park (Fourth) avenue, with unsurpassed transportation facilities. All the exhibits will be on the main auditorium floor.

"Since New York is the central immigration port of America, as well as its financial center and metropolis, and because it is the chief importing port, warehouse and storehouse of the continent, a tremendous volume of railroad traffic must pass through this gateway carrying exports from our country and distributing its imports, its labor, incoming farmers—it is estimated that 300,000 of these annually arrive from the Old World—and what is of most consequence, capital for investments to develop the enterprises of America!

"Since in New York there are 5,000,000 people, and since its newspapers reach the most readers and widest distribution, and too, because this is the only way by which the land opportunities and the soil products of America may be shown with economy and utmost practicality in the metropolis, it is believed that the success of the 1912 exposition is assured—abundantly assured particularly that the 1911 Exposition was a brilliant success. The patronage accorded the last exposition was so great that all records for attendance at Madison Square Garden were broken and on the last day, by order of the police, the doors were closed five times because of the great crowds within."

He finally agreed to leave America and shipped on a sailing vessel for Liverpool. He made his way back across the ocean and, on reaching New York, related a startling story of being shanghaied with the consent of his parents. He came to Alameda and again left this city after further family trouble. He was gone for a year, showing up again last night. He said he had been traveling about the world. Moore was well dressed when he appeared in court this morning and appeared to be in fairly prosperous circumstances. He had a trunk check and explained that he was to have sailed for Eureka yesterday. He said that he had kept away from liquor until yesterday when he fell again and wound up by showing at his parents' home on Union street and causing trouble which resulted in his arrest.

Before young Moore was allowed to leave police headquarters this morning his father notified him that if he appeared again in this city the parent would proceed to have him incarcerated in an insane asylum as a hopeless inebriate.

MAKES CHARGE OF EXTORTIONATE RATE

Attorney Declares Overcharge Has Been Made by the Water Company.

Complaint of the charging of alleged extortionate rates for water service was filed with the City Council this morning by Attorney H. A. Lutrell for Mary Kelly, owner of premises at 834 Franklin street. The complaint was referred to City Expert, Engineer J. H. Dockweller for a report on its merits. Lutrell's letter follows:

To the Honorable City Council of Oakland.

Gentlemen—Addressing you honorable body on behalf of my client, Mary Kelly, I have to report and complain of further extortion by the Peoples Water Company.

On the January bill for the premises, No. 834 Franklin street, is charged $2.80 excess and under a threat dated January 2, which I received next day, that the water would be turned off in three days, my client was gouged out of said amount.

The excess charge last month for the same premises was $3.25. (Already complained of to your honorable body at that time.)

The flat rate on these premises is 85 cents per month, hence a meter rate does not apply.

In the case of Hatfield vs. this same company, now pending in the Superior court of this county. Action 24,850, Department No. 3, where the plaintiff in that suit has not paid any water bill for five years and this company has been supplying his premises (being compelled to do so by order of said court pending decision on the merits) the water company's contention in said case is:

That it is solely the right of the city to prosecute a case against said water company for any violation of the law or ordinance, to-wit: Such as charging excess rates. The question has not been passed upon yet by the court, so the Council will see that here a ratepayer other than the city is sought to be deprived by this august corporation that prates about "fair play," when he has the manhood to seek redress for his wrongs against the tyranny and robbery of that infamy, the Peoples Water Company, by the technicality that a ratepayer has no standing in court.

To avoid this plea by the water company the only safe course to pursue would be a suit (and an injunction) by the city to prevent further extortions by this robbing concern.

Yours truly,
H. A. LUTRELL,
Attorney for complainant.

A complaint of overcharges with a request for redress, was also filed with the Council by J. B. Gazett of 2233 Eighth avenue. Gazett declares that the company has threatened to cut off his water supply if he does not pay the bill, which, he declares, is excessive. This was also referred to Engineer Dockweller.

AGRILLA CASE IS SET FOR JANUARY 16

SAN LEANDRO, Jan. 11.—Tony Agrilla, one of the partners in the San Leandro mill and lumber company, charged with petty larceny and disturbing the peace by Mrs. Anna Mendonca, widow of the late Richard J. Mendonca, was arraigned today before Justice of the Peace D. U. Toffelmeier. Agrilla pleaded not guilty to both charges and the case was set for hearing on January 16.

Agrilla is charged with having prevented Mrs. Mendonca from entering her home situated on the San Leandro Mill and Lumber Company's grounds. A further complication in the tangle developed this morning when Henry Pape, father of Mrs. Mendonca was hailed into court charged with disturbing the peace by Tony Agrilla. Agrilla asserts that Pape refused to leave the company's premises when ordered to do so. Pape pleaded not guilty to the charge, his case also being set for January 16.

The long legs and heavy shoes of Louis Ortogo, a Mexican, protruding from under the bed Mrs. N. Jameson caused that lady to scream for help last night when she entered her room at the American Hotel, at Second and Jackson streets, in this city. Ortogo scrambled from beneath the bed and jumped from the window of the room to a fire escape in the light well and made his way to his own room in the same hotel. He was later captured by A. De La Sandos, another lodger in the house, and turned over to the police. Ortogo was charged with burglary and will be arraigned tomorrow.

$20,310,987 IN GOLD IS RECORD OF STATE IN 1911

Report Issued by Geological Survey; Silver Output Is $1,500,035

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—A report issued by Charles G. Yale of the United States Geological Survey today, shows that the gold produced in California in 1911 was valued at $20,310,987 as against $20,441,400 in 1910. The silver output was valued at $1,500,035. The 1910 silver production was $957,500. Litigation concerning smelter fumes is given as the cause of the slight falling off in the gold output.

"During 1911, one of the largest dredges was burned," says the the report, and others were sent to the scrap heap but several large new dredges were built. The modern dredging machines of the largest type are capable of handling 250,000 cubic yards of gravel monthly. The numerous dredges at work in such fields account for the large total placer output.

"In the Yuba river field, now the most important one in the state, the year was a record one, as it also was in the Folsom field, of Sacramento county. The Oroville field showed some falling off in yield, as was to be expected from the oldest dredging area in the state, where the best ground has been worked out."

About forty per cent of the total gold production of the state comes from the gold dredgers which, according to the report yield about eighty-five per cent of the placer gold. It is shown that the per centage from dredging operations is steadily increasing. The end of the year found 1100 producing mining properties in the state.

"Of the total silicious ore nearly 1,200,000 tons is derived in the five mother lode counties—Amador, Calaveras, Eldorado, Marisposa and Tuolumne," the report continues, "of these counties Amador has the largest tonnage and is also most productive from deep mining. Yuba continues to be the largest producer of gold, among the counties, owing to the extensive dredging preparations carried on there."

The report shows an increase in the Oregon silver output over 1910 and a falling off in gold. Washington shows a decline in both gold and silver production. The state produced during the year $504,537 in gold and $78,208 in silver; in 1910, the gold production was $806,000 and the silver $110,600.

OAKLAND TO HAVE ANOTHER THEATER

An apartment house and theater to cost in the neighborhood of $75,000 is soon to be erected on the piece of property at San Pablo avenue and Twenty-first street by the Clift estate, according to plans being made by Frederick C. Clift, a bond broker with offices in the First National Bank in San Francisco, who is one of the heirs. During the last few weeks the property has been cleared, and the old homestead which formerly occupied the center of the property has been moved along Twenty-first street to the west to make room for the new structure, work on which will probably commence at an early date.

The theater and apartment house will face on San Pablo avenue and on Twenty-first street as well. Along that street, the new Southern Pacific loop system is being constructed and that will be in operation in all probability within a few weeks. The site is one of particular advantage for an apartment house in that persons having business across the bay may reside there and have the advantage of both Southern Pacific and Key Route trains, the latter within a block distance. That the improvement may call for a much greater figure than the amount named has been intimated.

The plans will be ready shortly, as Frederick C. Clift is now understood to be busy in having them drawn.

DEVLIN'S TERM AS DIRECTOR EXPIRES 11TH

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—After 27 years as a prison director of the State of California, United States District Attorney Robert T. Devlin ends his connection with the prison board tomorrow, his last term of ten years expiring on January 12, 1912.

Devlin was originally appointed by Governor Stoneman to fill the unexpired term of Judge Va Fleet, when the latter was made Superior Judge of Sacramento county. At the expiration of this term of seven years he was reappointed by Governor Markham and ten years later by Governor Gage.

In speaking of his retirement after such long service, Devlin said that while he had found much of the work interesting and pleasant, he had discovered that it was getting yearly more arduous, and he felt glad that the time had come when he could turn over the task to other hands.

In point of continuous service Devlin has been the senior member of the prison board, although Director Charles Sonntag began earlier only to drop out for a few years before resuming his duties.

Vesper of 1339 Bay street, Alameda, brought suit today in the Superior Court for a divorce from Karl H. Vesper.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR AND SALE OF STREET RAILROAD FRANCHISE AND ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS THEREFOR.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that on the sixteenth day of October, A. D. 1911, an application in writing was made by the Oakland Traction Company, a corporation, to the Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda, State of California, for a franchise to lay down, construct, maintain and operate in the said County of Alameda, for the term of fifty (50) years, a single or double track street railroad, with all necessary and convenient stations, side-tracks, switches, poles, wires, connections and appliances, to be operated by electricity or such other improved mode of operation as may be authorized by law, except steam locomotives, along and upon that certain route in the Township of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, which said route is described by its center line as follows, to wit:

BEGINNING at the intersection of the northern boundary line of the City of Berkeley with the center line of The Arlington Road, as said road is shown on that certain map entitled "Map of The Arlington Road, from Berkeley to Lot 1, San Pablo Rancho," filed on the 9th day of March, 1908, in the office of the County Recorder of Alameda County, California; and running thence northerly along the center line of said The Arlington Road to the intersection of said center line of The Arlington Road with the northerly boundary line of the County of Alameda;

And that it is proposed by the said Board of Supervisors to grant the same, upon the terms and conditions and restrictions imposed or required by law, and upon the additional terms and conditions and restrictions hereinafter set forth, and that bids will be received for such franchise, and that it will be awarded to the highest bidder;

That the term for which said franchise or privilege is to be granted is fifty (50) years, and that the route to be traversed by said street railroad is that above set forth and particularly described:

And notice is further given that sealed bids for said franchise will be received up to the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M. on Monday, the fifth day of February, A. D. 1912, and must be filed with the County Clerk of said County of Alameda and ex-officio Clerk of said Board of Supervisors at his office in the Hall of Records in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, and that upon Monday, the fifth day of February, A. D. 1912, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., the said Board of Supervisors will meet at the Chamber of said Board in the Hall of Records in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, in open session, and will then and there open and read said bids; and that thereupon said franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the person, firm or corporation, who shall make the highest cash bid therefor; PROVIDED, ONLY, that at the time of the opening of said bids any responsible person, firm or corporation present or represented may bid for said franchise or privilege a sum not less than ten per cent above the highest sealed bid therefor, and said bid so made may be raised not less than ten per cent by any other responsible bidder, and said bidding may so continue until finally said franchise shall be struck off, sold, and awarded by said Board of Supervisors to the highest bidder therefor in gold coin of the United States. Each sealed bid shall be accompanied with cash or a certified check, payable to the Treasurer of said County of Alameda, for the full amount of said bid, and no sealed bid shall be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith, and the successful bidder shall deposit, at least, ten per cent of the amount of his bid with the County Clerk of said County of Alameda before the franchise shall be struck off to him. And if he shall fail to make such deposit immediately, then and in that case, his bid shall not be received, and shall be considered as void, and the said franchise shall then and there be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit, as above mentioned. Said procedure shall be had until said franchise is struck off, sold, and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of, at least, ten per cent of the amount of his bid therefor, as herein provided. Said successful bidder shall deposit with the County Clerk of said County of Alameda, within twenty-four hours after the acceptance of his bid, the remaining ninety per cent of the amount thereof, and in case he or it shall fail to do so, then the said deposit theretofore made shall be forfeited, and the said award of said franchise shall be void, and the said franchise shall then and there, by said Board of Supervisors, be again offered for sale to the highest bidder therefor, in the same manner, and under the same restrictions as hereinbefore provided, and in case said bidder shall fail to deposit with the County Clerk of said County of Alameda, the remaining ninety per cent of his bid, within twenty-four hours after its acceptance, the award to him of said franchise shall be set aside, and the deposit theretofore made by him shall be forfeited and no further proceedings for a sale of said franchise shall be had unless the same shall be readvertised and again offered for sale, in the manner hereinbefore provided:

The successful bidder and his assigns must during the life of said franchise pay to the County of Alameda two per cent (2%) of the gross annual receipts of the person, partnership or corporation to whom the franchise is awarded, arising from its use, operation or possession. No percentage shall be paid for the first five (5) years succeeding the date of the franchise but thereafter such percentage shall be payable annually; and in the event said payment is not made said franchise shall be forfeited:

Work to construct said street railroad shall be commenced in good faith within not more than four (4) months from the date of the taking effect of the Ordinance granting said franchise, and if not so commenced within said time, said franchise shall be declared forfeited and the same shall be completed within not more than three (3) years thereafter, and if not so completed within said time said franchise shall be forfeited, unless the uncompleted portion thereof be abandoned with the consent and approval of said Board of Supervisors;

The successful bidder for said franchise shall file a bond running to said County of Alameda, with, at least, two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said Board of Supervisors, in the penal sum of two thousand (2000) dollars, conditioned that such bidder shall well and truly observe, fulfill, and perform each and every term and condition of such franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of such bond, the whole amount of the said penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages, and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties upon said bond. Said bond shall be filed with said Board of Supervisors within five days after such franchise is awarded, and upon the filing and approval of such bond, the said franchise shall, by said Board of Supervisors, be granted by ordinance to the person, firm, or corporation to whom it has been struck off, sold or awarded, and in case that said bond shall not be so filed, the award of such franchise shall be set aside, and any money paid therefor shall be forfeited, and said franchise shall, in the discretion of said Board of Supervisors, be re-advertised and again offered for sale in the same manner, and under the same restrictions, as hereinbefore provided;

Notice is hereby further given that said franchise will be granted upon the following terms and conditions and restrictions in addition to the terms and conditions and restrictions required or imposed by law, to wit:

1. The street railroad to be authorized by said franchise shall consist of a single or double track, and the rails shall be laid in a good and substantial and workmanlike manner, and said railroad shall be constructed in such a manner as to present the least possible obstruction and inconvenience to the traveling public, and the cars run thereon shall be of the most approved pattern for comfort, convenience and safety;

2. Said street railroad shall be operated by electricity or such other improved mode of operation as may be authorized by law, except steam locomotives;

3. The tracks, side-tracks and switches shall not be more than five feet wide within the rails and must have a space between them sufficient to allow the cars to pass each other freely, and when permanently laid shall be as nearly as possible in the middle of said road. No stations shall be constructed within the lines of the public highway without the approval and consent of said Board of Supervisors;

4. Single fares on said street railroad shall be as now provided by law;

5. The grantee or grantees of said franchise, their successors or assigns, must plank, pave or macadamize, or otherwise improve, with the same kind of material with which other portions of the public highway adjacent are improved, the entire length of the said public highway used by said track or tracks between the rails and for two feet on each side thereof, and also between the tracks where there is more than one track, and keep the same constantly in repair, flush with said public highway and with good crossings, and said grantee or grantees, their successors or assigns, after five (5) days notice to repair or improve the entire length of said public highway used by said railroad, or any portion thereof, as above provided, shall forfeit to the said County of Alameda ten dollars per day for each and every day that they, or their successors or assigns, shall neglect to comply with the aforesaid condition;

6. Said grantee or grantees, their successors or assigns, shall lay the tracks for said street railroad, along and upon said public highway under the direction of said Board of Supervisors and the County Surveyor of said County of Alameda, and no change of said public highway over which said street railroad is to run shall be made in any way except by and with the consent and approval of said Board of Supervisors;

7. In case said street railroad shall be operated by electricity, the poles used upon said public highway in the construction thereof shall be of the most approved pattern in use for electrical railroads and of wood, iron or concrete, and all wires used in connection with the exercise of said franchise, except underground wires, shall be of sufficient height and elevation above the ground so as to avoid obstruction to the ordinary use of said public highway;

8. Cars must be operated over said street railroad in each direction at least once every thirty (30) minutes between the hours of six (6) o'clock A. M. and eleven (11) o'clock P. M. of each day;

9. All mail carriers in the employ of the United States Government, at all times while engaged in the actual discharge of duty, shall be permitted and allowed to ride on the cars of said street railroad without paying any sum of money whatever for fare or otherwise.

Chicago Lightweight Will Take Place of Australian Boxer at West Oakland Club

CHARLEY GRIFFIN RUNS OUT OF BOUT WITH JOHN FRAYNE

Australian Objects to Weight and West Oakland Management Substitutes Jack Britton; Preliminaries Good

Late yesterday afternoon at the eleventh hour, as the saying is, Australian Charley Griffin tossed a bloomer at the matchmaker of the West Oakland Club and ran out of his match with Johnny Frayne that was scheduled to take place tomorrow evening.

Maybe it was cold extremities or maybe a little streak of yellow mixed with green that brought about the runout but giving Griffith the benefit of the doubt, we attach herewith the letter he sent out giving his reasons for not wanting any of the Johnny Frayne rapid fire stuff. Here's the letter:

"As Johnny Frayne has found it impossible to do the legitimate lightweight limit of 133 pounds as specified in the articles of agreement I have called off the bout scheduled for Friday night. Frayne wanted to meet me at catch weights, but the handicap is too much, especially as I am down to weight, right down.

"Failing a match with Hogan I challenge Frankie Burns, to weigh in either at 6 o'clock or ringside. I desire to keep faith with the sporting public, and the match falling through, after a hard week's training, is no fault of yours truly."

That is well written and well worded, but it is junk that the fight fans will not fall for.

WHAT SOL LEVINSON DID.

When Sol Levinson received Griffin's letter he gave a grunt and then went to work and in a jiffy had Jack Britton, the Chicago lightweight, in harness ready to take the place of the Australian, which at least shows that Britton is willing to mix it, if nothing more.

Perhaps the substitute match will better please the fans. Griffin was unknown here and while he had a record of things done in the east so did "Knockout" Brown and a few other that we know. Britton, though, has been trying all the time he has fought around here and while he has not set any worlds afire by his ring work, he is at least a willing and game boy and should make just as interesting an opponent for Frayne as Griffin would have made.

Britton is in shape and the new order of things suits him as well as Frayne to a nicety. By the terms they signed there won't be any wrangling over the weight. Both will come into the ring at catch weights and this alone always gives a boxer an advantage.

As it is there is no use for the fans to feel bad. Frayne and Britton should put up a good mill and with the balance of the card arranged by Levinson the show will be O. K.

PRELIMINARIES HAVE CLASSY LOOK

Matchmaker Levinson had a hard time getting his card together for the preliminaries, but after considerable dickering signed up Ray Campbell and Joe Atchison for a six round bout and Lee Johnson and Manuel Vierra for a like number of rounds. Besides these and the main event there are to be two four-round bouts between huskies who seek fame and glory in the roped arena.

As for the six round bouts, both look good. Joe Atchison has been boxing around the bay for some little time now and in his every bout has given an excellent account of himself. His opponent, Ray Campbell is a strong, willing youngster with plenty of sand and he is bubbling over with confidence that he will beat his opponent.

The other six-round bout in which Lee Johnson figures, has its peculiarities in this manner. Johnson has started several times around the bay and each bout he has fought he has gotten the worst of the referees' decisions. Time and again he has led by a city block only to have the bout called a draw.

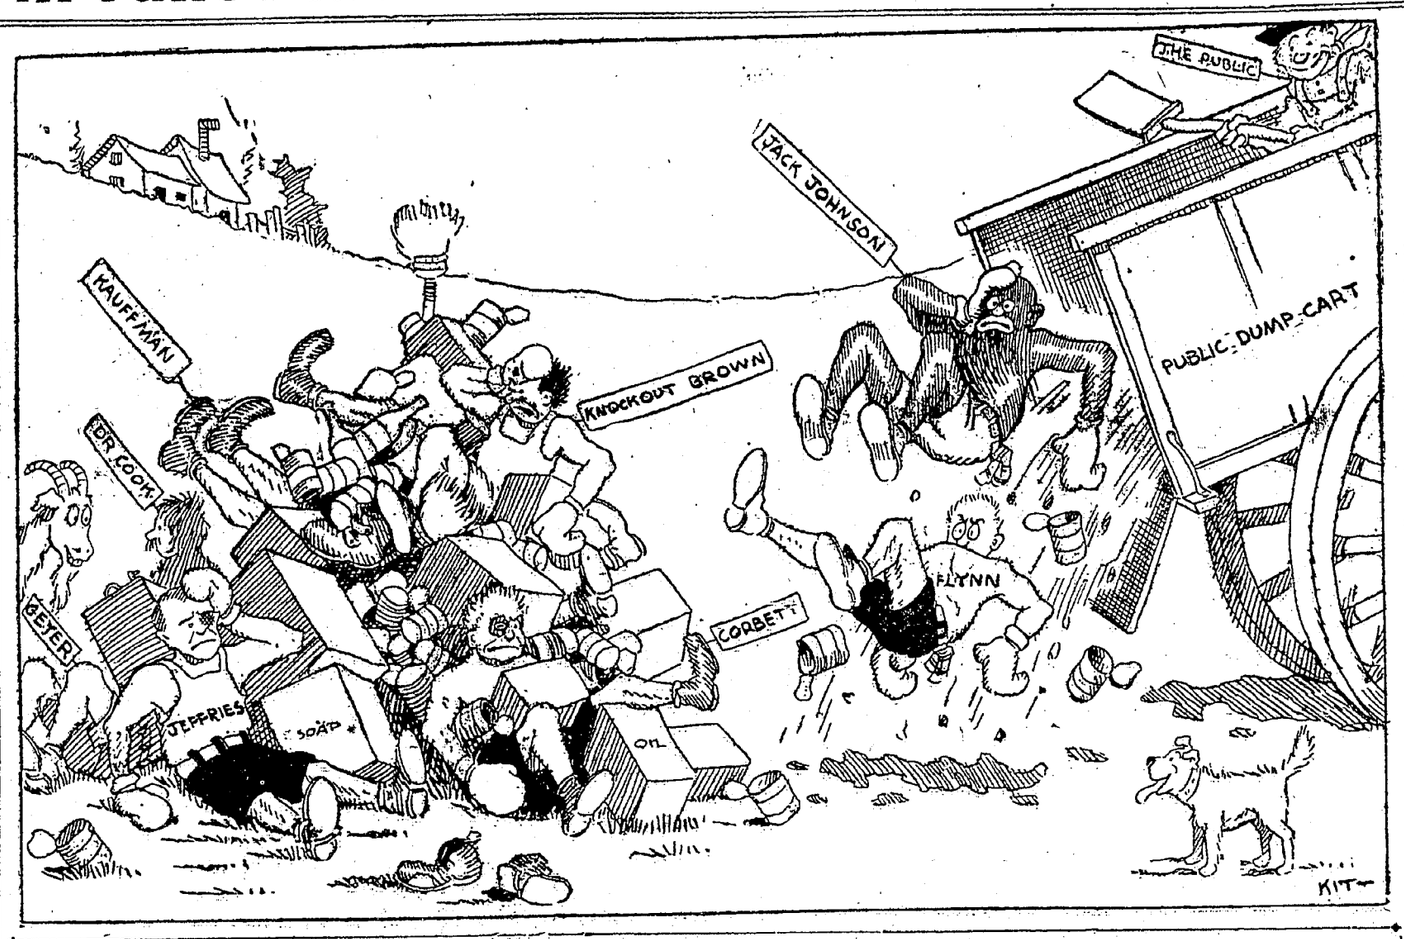

Last night he declared that he was going to try for a knockout for then he knew he would surely be proclaimed a winner. Vierra, his opponent, likewise figures to win by a knockout, so some lively milling can be looked for.

JIM COFFROTH MAKING MATCHES.

Evidently Sunshine Jimmy Coffroth either has a horseshoe, or a presentiment of just how the fight permits are to be awarded tomorrow afternoon over the bay for he is not worrying, and, moreover, he has as good as signed a card for the last day of the month.

The boxers that have been tied up, or as good as tied up by the dean of the game, are Grover Hayes, who has some rep, and Harlem Tommy Murphy, who has endeared himself to the fans out this way by his slam-bang style of fighting.

It will mark the first meeting of these two worthies of the ring and should prove a most interesting match. Hayes has been hammering away at lightweights for some little time now and has a record of having given Frankie Burns, the local boy, and "One Round" Hogan, a most merry lacing. The boys are to box at 133 at 6 o'clock. Both boys are legitimate lightweights so they should have no trouble getting into shape. Harlem Tommy will make his headquarters at Al. White's place, for he considers it the best in the west.

POLISH WRESTLER IS WINNER IN GO WITH WESTERGAARD

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Jan. 11. — Zbyszsko won two straight falls from Pesse Westergaard of Des Moines last night. Zbyszsko won the first fall in one hour and two minutes with a far arm and body hold and the second in seven minutes and 12 seconds, with a head scissors which he worked into a reverse Nelson. Westergaard took the aggressive in the first fall and was behind his man much of the time, but the Pole worked out of dangerous positions with comparative ease.

In the second fall, Zbyszsko threw Westergaard over his head as they came to the center of the mat and had his opponent at a disadvantage to the end of the bout.

MORAN SIGNS UP TO MIX WITH JOE MANDOT

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11.—The West Side Athletic Club management has announced that an agreement has been signed by Owen Moran to meet Joe Mandot here February 18, in a 20-round bout. The men posted $250 forfeit to make 133 pounds ringside.

CURED IN FIVE DAYS

Hydrocele, Varicocele, Hernia

No Detention From Occupation, Family or Home

R. C. HOWE, M. D.
The Leading Specialist.

Consult me at once. You can be cured before returning home. Many cases can be cured in one or two visits.

No severe operation. Many cases permanently cured in one treatment. Most time-saving, most natural, most safe. A radical and permanent cure. I give my word and will cite you to other medical authors and authorities that this is no exaggeration, but a fact. I am certainly prepared to cure by experience and equipment, which are the keystones to success. I have the best equipped medical office on the coast.

I invite you to come to my office. I will explain to you my treatment for Nervous Debility, Blood Poison, Piles, Fistula, Bladder, Kidney, Prostatic and all Men's Diseases, and give you, FREE, a physical examination; if necessary, a microscopical and chemical analysis of secretions, to determine pathological and bacteriological conditions. Every man should take advantage of this opportunity to learn his true condition. A permanent cure is what you want.

I am always willing to wait for my fee until a cure is effected.

VARICOCELE—HYDROCELE

Impair vitality. I daily demonstrate that Varicocele and Hydrocele can be cured, in nearly all cases, by one treatment, in such a satisfactory way that the vital parts are preserved and strengthened, pain ceases, swelling subsides, a healthy circulation is rapidly re-established, instead of the depressing conditions. I GUARANTEE YOU A CURE OR REFUND THE MONEY.

"606" FOR BLOOD POISON,

Skin Diseases, Rash, Sore Mouth or Throat, Swollen Glands, Mucous Patches, Copper-colored Spots, Rheumatic Pains, Eczema. My treatment often cures the above symptoms in 15 to 30 days so you nor anyone would know you ever had the trouble.

CURES AFTER HOT SPRINGS FAIL.

PILES AND FISTULA

The sequelae of these afflictions are distressing nervous reflexes and painful conditions. My treatment and success are the result of years of experience. I cure PILES WITHOUT CUTTING. I cure you without pain or detention from business under guarantee.

KIDNEY, BLADDER AND PROSTATIC DISEASES.

With these diseases you may have more complications than are presented by any other diseased organs. By my searching illumination of the bladder I determine accurately the disease, and by microscopical examination and urinalysis I make doubly sure the condition of the kidneys, thus laying foundation for scientific treatment.

Weakness—Its Complete Cure Without Tonic

What is commonly termed functional weakness is generally a symptom of prostatic disorder. To stimulate activity by the use of powerful tonics is an easy matter, but such results are merely temporary drug effects. Most doctors treat "weakness" in this manner because they do not know how to cure the real cause of the derangement. I am the only physician employing scientific and successful methods. I use no tonics at all. My treatment is a local one entirely, and corrects every abnormal condition of that vital center, the prostate gland. My cures are real cures, and are permanent.

Consultation Free— I offer not only FREE consultation and advice, but of every case that comes to me I will make a careful examination and diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about his trouble.

My office is open all day from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. and Sundays from 9 to 1 only. Ailing men out of town who cannot call, write for diagnosis chart.

AD WOLGAST SAYS HE WILL BE FIT IN APRIL

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 11.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion pugilist of the world, who, on November 29, underwent an operation for appendicitis, and who more recently was threatened with an attack of pneumonia, bought an automobile yesterday and announced that he would make an automobile trip from Los Angeles to his home, Cadallic, Mich., during the first part of April. He added that Mrs. Wolgast would drive the entire distance.

"I am feeling fine," said the champion, "and see no reason why I cannot make the trip all right. I expect to begin training by that time for my first fight since my illness. I expect to climb through the ropes about July 4, but just who will be in the other corner is a matter not yet settled.

"It may be Fred Welsh, Joe Rivers or Packy McFarland. But whoever it is will soon find out that I am better than I ever was."

Wolgast's automobile will be fully equipped with a camping outfit, and he declared that they would eat and sleep wherever time for these things overtook them. He stated that he expected to make the trip in about two weeks.

MURPHY HAS HOPES OF LANDING MINER BROWN

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—President Charles Murphy, of the Cubs, it was announced today, cut short his southern trip several days in order to reach Chicago in time to save Pitcher "Miner" Brown to his team. It was said he would seek a conference with the pitcher today.

"Murphy will probably want to talk to me," said Brown, "but I have no intention of returning to the game and I can conceive of no argument that he can make to change my stand on the subject. Once and for all I will not pitch professional baseball next season."

DEMAREST RUNS RINGS AROUND CONKLIN AT BILLIARDS

CHICAGO, Jan. 11. — Calvin Demarest, the former 18.2 billiard champion, passed Fred Conklin, international amateur champion, in the third block of their handicap match here last night.

As a result of the night's play, Demarest leads Conklin by 137 points. Conklin, who started with a lead of 75, made a total for the night of 130. Demarest had an average of 35 with runs of 90, 133 and 141. Demarest is playing Conklin 2000 to 1335.

NO CHANCE FOR TRADE.

There is no possible chance for McCredie to trade Krueger for Carlisle with Hogan for Hogan declares he would not trade even, even though some of the knockers do think Carlisle is a bone-head. Hogan says he does not think Krueger is worth more than the draft price of $600.

TRYING FOR NEW YORK.

Bill Aldridge, the well-known local sport who spends the greatest part of his time at Venice, has made application for the position of trainer of the New York Americans under Harry Wolverton.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Pitcher Cecil Ferguson of the Boston Nationals is in the market for a minor league franchise. He wants to be a magnate and drop his savings.

James McCool, Charley Dooin's partner in vaudeville, is in the market for a minor league club and if he gets it, Dooin has promised to supply him with players.

Garry Hermann is corresponding with Connie Mack in an effort to get the world champions to dedicate Cincinnati's new park next spring, in an exhibition game.

If McGraw really does mean to "shake up" his Giants he will have some right classy young material to work in, among those mentioned being Groh, Bues, High, Johnson, Jacobsen, Robertson and Gardella.

President Fogel of the Phillies expects to sell a score or more players. It is told that he has 75 under contract, at present, though there is something in the rules putting the limit at 40 that may be carried at this time of the year.

President Dreyfuss has received a letter from Howard Camnitz, who is going to spend the winter in Louisville. "Cammy" says he is going to stick close to the training rules this winter and hopes to be in the best spring form of his life when he reports next March.

Jack Hendricks, who sold Pitcher O'Brien for a tidy sum in September, was predicting a great future for the pitcher in Chicago the other day. "I believe you," quoth Charlie Murphy. "He is destined to be a star. By the way, he was offered to me two years ago for $50—and I turned him down. Wow, wow, but the things we do not grab turn up like a barrel-hoop to hit our shins!"

CONFESSOR JOHNSON IN BAD WITH THE GOTHAMITES

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—If Frank O'Neil of the recently created state athletic commission has anything to say about it, Jack Johnson will not don a glove for a contest within the limits of New York state. There has been some talk of staging a short bout here for Johnson as a preliminary to the proposed match with Jim Flynn in Nevada.

"But," said Commissioner O'Neil today, "the athletic commission was appointed to control boxing and we're going to control it. I have come to the conclusion it is against public policy and experience to have Johnson box here. This is final."

O'Neil added that in the event any promoters should insist in putting on a Johnson bout here he would resign. "And that," concluded, "would stop all contests."

THREATS TO LEAVE CONFERENCE STARTS BIG CONFAB

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—The threat of the University of Minnesota to leave the "big eight" conference unless the White resolution is amended was met yesterday with a statement of University of Chicago officials that any attempt to change the measure would be bitterly opposed by the latter institution.

The White resolution calls for a two-thirds vote in adopting conference rules. Minnesota wants it changed to read a majority vote.

Athletes of the Chicago school believe it is the desire of Minnesota to vote on a majority basis in order to put through the summer baseball movement.

With Purdue, Wisconsin and Chicago holding together it will be impossible for the baseball question to pass unless the resolution is changed.

AN INQUISITIVE FAN SEEKS INFORMATION

The following letter was in the mail this morning:

Oakland, Jan. 11th, 1912.

Sporting Editor Oakland Tribune:

Kindly inform me through your valuable sporting columns if the players in both Coast and big leagues are paid while in training and do the players signing in big league contracts for specified salary receive that salary if they are farmed out. Thanking you for an immediate reply, "FAN."

The answer—Coast League and big league players are not paid salaries, but get expenses while in training. When a player is farmed out to the minors he gets whatever salary the manager of the minors wants to give him, or he don't play ball.

JONES SIGNS CONTRACT.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Jake Stahl's contract with Boston, it is announced, is for two years as playing manager.

Harry Howell, old American League pitcher, will, it is said, get a berth in the Eastern League next year as an umpire.

Chicago advices are to the effect that Second Baseman McConnell's recent good work for the White Sox has earned him the position again for next year, instead of a transfer to Toronto.

"It is said that Washington will pay Griffith $10,000 a year with a bonus of $25,000 if he doesn't make a deal," says Jimmy Isaminger in the North American. All of which is some more of Isaminger's good-natured kidding.

Patsy Donovan, boss of the Red Sox the past season, in all likelihood will go back to scouting next year. It is the intention of Jim McAleer to retain Donovan on the payroll, and the roving manager will do the gumshoe act in search of more Speakers.

Harry Wolter will likely shift over to center field when the Yankees go to the post next season. Wolter, with his good whip, covers a great deal of ground to the right and left and will be good at that job. That's his place for next year if the Yankees can get some one to hold down the right field job on the hill top.

After all, the fears that Connie Mack was going to break up his million-dollar infield are groundless. It is announced that Herman Bronkie, drafted by the Athletics from Toledo, was secured by Mack for Harry Davis and that he will be turned over to Cleveland, from which club he went to the Toledo team. This Macklan-Davis friendship should not be allowed to interfere with each team playing its own game next year; there is only one pennant to be fought for.

The racing game at Columbia, S. C., blew up last Saturday.

Walker is now a professional, and an effort is being made to arrange a series of races between him and Nat Cartmell, the former University of Pennsylvania student, to be run in South Africa.

DES MOINES MAYOR AGAINST MAT MEN FAKING

DES MOINES, Jan. 11.—"Des Moines does not want wrestling matches which the Chicago authorities have branded with suspicion," said Mayor Hanna today in reference to the announcement that the Mahmout-Pederson match might be brought here. "Furthermore," he said, "this city will not tolerate matches which are not on the square in every detail.

I am not saying that this match is a fixed one, but so long as Mayor Harrison has indicated it is not wanted in Chicago, Des Moines can get along well enough without it."

DE ORO HAS EASY TIME DEFEATING CARNEY THREE CUSHIONS

DENVER, Jan. 11. — Alfred de Oro, world's three-cushion billiard champion, last night secured a lead of 25 points over Joseph Carney, Pacific Coast champion, in the first block of their 150-point match for the title, scoring 50 to Carney's 25.

De Oro was at his best and shot confidently from the opening of his effort to retain his title and the Lambert trophy. A perfect demonstration of his mastery of safety shots left Carney helpless. Carney was in good form but was unable to run more than three, while De Oro thrice scored five in an inning. Sixty-four innings were required to make the fifty points.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Bombardier Wells, the English fighter, has canceled the passage which he had engaged on the steamship Olympia for New York, and has accepted an offer for a series of exhibitions in London. His agent here said today that Wells probably would defer his visit to America until next season.

ST. MARY'S MEN AGREE TO MEET SANTA CLARA

The managers of Santa Clara and St. Mary's Athletic Association met yesterday afternoon and arranged the schedule for the annual meeting between the two colleges.

Basketball will be the first sport to be decided, and later on the baseball teams will meet on the field. Santa Clara has been selected as the place for the opening game of the basketball series and February 10 is the date. The following week the teams will meet at St. Mary's and should a third date be necessary the game will be played over the bay at San Francisco.

The Mission team will also have the opening game of the baseball series at San Jose on St. Patrick's day. For the second game St. Mary's has the choice of either San Francisco or Oakland, but it is likely that the local school will play in this city. The third game is to be played in San Francisco.

Santa Clara was represented by E. J. Ryan, S. J.; Basketball Manager Castrucchio and Baseball Manager Detels, while Brother Vantasian, athletic moderator, and Graduate Manager Russell were present for St. Mary's.

BILLY QUEAL FAILS IN ATTEMPT TO BEAT RAINS AND YVES

NEW YORK, Jan. 11. — Billie Queal of Alexandria Bay, New York, failed in his attempt to defeat a team composed of Al Baines of New York and Henri St. Ives, the French Marathon runner, in a ten-mile relay race here last night. Raines ran the first five miles in 26:02, and was leading Queal when relieved by Ives.

PEARL CASEY GETS JOB AS COAST LEAGUE UMP.

President Al. Baum before he left for Los Angeles today announced that he had signed Pearl Casey, the former Beaver, as an umpire for the season of 1912.

In signing Casey, Baum has done well, for there is little doubt but what the former second baseman will make good. In speaking of the appointment Baum said, "I have always been an admirer of Casey as a man and a ball player. He knows every angle of the game and has a keen judgment of balls and strikes as he proved while with Portland, and a better inside ball player never joined the Coast League. Again, Casey showed that he would tolerate no rough tactics on the diamond, and his career while in the league was always a clean and manly one. This is also the opinion of the writer and thousands of ball fans.

FRESNO MAN ELECTED HEAD OF NEW LINE

FRESNO, Jan. 11.—At the meeting of the stockholders of the proposed railroad from the San Joaquin valley to Monterey, Roy White of Fresno was elected to succeed T. C. White, who was not a candidate for re-election. Although there has been considerable rumor to the effect that Fresno was no longer considered as a terminal for the road, because of the failure of capitalists to raise the necessary money, no mention of this was made at the meeting and no action was taken in regard to the terminal being located at any particular valley city.

BACK TO MINORS, IS PATH OF FORMER LEAGUERS

Several One-time Idols of Fans Have Slipped Out of Limelight.

"The king is dead. Long live the king!" So sing the baseball fans of the country as the great heroes of the diamond come and go, as the veteran pitcher or batter begins to slow up and find the going a trifle too fast and is compelled to see some youngster crowd him into the background just as he himself was the cause of some earlier star being relegated to the minors some ten years or so ago.

The roll of big league favorites for whom taps have been sounded since the completion of the 1911 season is rather small as compared with that of a year ago. Foremost among those who will be seen no more upon the American League diamond is Norman (Kid) Elberfeld, one of the most aggressive and best-known ball players identified with the game in several years. For years he was famed as one of the best all-around shortstops in the business, ranking second only to Hans Wagner. Several times a .300 hitter, he added to that hitting strength the ability to put up a flashy game at short. He was a wise baseball player and was on to all of the tricks of the game, as many a youngster discovered much to his chagrin. Because of his aggressiveness he gained the nickname of "Scrappy," but off the field there was no player more modest or unassuming. In the departure of Kid Elberfeld the American League has lost one of its brightest stars.

Fearless in the extreme he has always been, taking a hard-pitched ball on the head or body now and then so as to gain first, now straddling the base-runner at second in his desire to secure the put-out.

In tagging the runner he had a style all his own and his legs were a mass of scars from the wounds inflicted by the spikes of the opposing players. Possibly it is this very indifference to spikes that has occasioned his slowing up.

Next to Elberfeld comes William (Wid) Conroy, a man who can play any position in the infield or outfield and play it as well as the regular whom he may be called upon to replace for one or twenty games. Wid got his start at Milwaukee when the American League was considered a minor circuit. He was drafted by Pittsburg and remained there until the American League invaded New York, when he was selected as one of the all-star team to represent the younger organization in that city. He was a fixture in the big town until two years ago, when he was sold to Washington for $5000. Now he goes to Rochester, where he should be good for several seasons. Perhaps he will come back again. Stranger things have happened.

Here comes, or rather, here goes, Frederick Tully (Topsy) Hartsel, the tow-haired little chap who put Wellington, Ohio, on the baseball map. Hartsel is a veteran in years as well as experience. He was a big leaguer prior to the birth of the American League. Connie Mack coaxing him to Philadelphia from the Chicago Nationals. Before the years overtook him there were fewer better base runners than the "Duke of Wellington," while the fans still remember how skillfully Topsy and Dave Fultz base to work the hit and run, along with Lave Cross as well. And when it came to working the pitcher for passes, who was there who had anything on Topsy? But he could not last forever, and Toledo is the gainer, for if Hartsel is made manager, the Mudhens are sure of a skilled baseball man as leader, for he ranks high among the students of the game.

Then there is Charley Hemphill, who brought credit to himself as a member of the Cleveland, Boston, St. Louis and New York Americans. Although an American Leaguer for ten years, he is still young in years, and is good for several seasons with the Atlanta club, which he has been engaged to manage. And he will hit better than .300 in 1912 is the writer's prediction.

Frank Falkenberg is Cleveland's contribution to the ranks of departing veterans. Fred's departure is more unexpected than that of the others mentioned, for he has always won more games than he has lost—that is, since becoming one of the Naps. But, because of his physique, failing to carry enough poundage for his height, he has not been able to work as often as big league managers desire. Had he been blessed with more avoirdupois he would rank among the ten best pitchers of the country. But the managers found themselves unable to wish more flesh on Fred's bones. May be, like Tom Hughes, he will come back.

Dolly Gray and Jack Lelivelt, who are sentenced to Rochester by Washington, can scarcely be called veterans, but still they have been big leaguers for a few years.

Others to follow those mentioned are Davy Jones of the Tigers and Doc Gessler of Washington, while Harry Davis is slated to retire from the game as an active player. Little Ambrose McConnell of the White Sox goes to Montreal because of an impaired arm.

The 1911 list of departed friends, however, cannot compare with that of the previous twelve months, when a host of big league favorites bade farewell to the major circuits. Among them were Bill Bradley, Bob Unglaub, Tom Jones, Harry Bemis, Heinie Berger, Harry Niles, Lou Criger, Freddie Parent, Jimmie Dygert, Walter Browne, Edgar Hahn, Doc Reisling, Art Griggs, Dode Criss, Freddie Payne, Grover Land, Bill Bailey, Fred Harkness, Geo. Perring and Danny Hoffman.

STEAMER JASON IN COAST TRADE

Steamer M. S. Dollar Loses a Coil of Cable Valued at $500.

That the big Norwegian steamer Jason, which docked at Moore & Scott's shipyards a couple of days ago, is nothing more or less than a starter or "feeler" for the opening of a new line of coast steam carriers, was made known today by one of the representatives of the Frederick Jebsen Company. The big liner came into this port several days ago to be converted into an oil burner and but little was thought of the incident save that she was the first foreign ship to be converted into an oil burner. It has leaked out, however, that with the restoring of normal conditions along the West coast and the interior of Mexico the Jebson owners, seeing the possibilities for profitable shipping, chartered the Jason for a period of three years. Although at present the Jason is the only vessel of the Jebson Company making the Pacific coast run, it is probable should the trade come up to what is expected of it, it will be but a short time before other vessels are added to the run. The Jason is in charge of Captain E. M. Nilsen, and made her last run from the port of Shanghai in the Orient.

WAR INTERRUPTS SERVICE.

Before and up to the time of the opening of the Mexican revolution the Jebsons had the German steamers Ella and Erna making the run, but with the beginning of hostilities suffered such big losses that they were forced to discontinue the traffic and turn to other quarters. The Jason was constructed eight years ago and with the exception of one year on the Atlantic between New York and Cuba had been plying along the coast of China and Japan. She was chartered from J. B. Linaae and Captain E. M. Nilsen, her present skipper.

The liner is a 4000-ton ship, capable of carrying a 3000-ton cargo, and is equipped with accommodations for twenty cabin passengers and a large number of steerage. Manzanillo will be the principal port of call. At this port she will pick up from 700,000 to 1,000,000 feet of white oak each trip, while from other ports she will pick up Mexican freight for the northern coast. The lumber from Manzanillo will be from the Colima Lumber Company, controlled by a brother of Admiral Dewey and other Eastern capitalists. According to reports, this company has control over 200,000,000 feet of white oak, which will be thrown on the market by the Jason and other carriers that will doubtlessly be added to this coast run. It is hoped by the Jebsens to handle a large number of passengers o nthis run, but it is the general belief among marine men that such an attempt will not result in any great profit, a large number of passenger liners running to the Mexican coast as it is.

That the newly added run on this coast will greatly benefit Oakland is also being discussed among local shipping men, for should the rumor to the effect that the Jason will discharge on this side prove true, the local waterfront will gain considerable fame.

The Jason is scheduled to sail on the new run January 17.

TO BE OVERHAULED.

The steam schooner Klamath went on drydock at the United Engine Works this morning. She will be overhauled, painted and her engines inspected.

Among the arrivals at Long wharf yesterday was the big Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer Watson, which, after picking up four carloads of freight, steamed for San Francisco. Other arrivals were the steam schooners Daisy and Phoenix. The Daisy is in charge of Captain Smith and comes from Willapa Harbor. Captain Smith reports the passage from Willapa as rough and unpleasant, a heavy rain and cold mist being in evidence nearly the entire run. The Phoenix is in charge of Captain Kokertiz and comes from Eureka. She reports a pleasant passage.

While the big Robert Dollar lines, M. S. Dollar, was lying at Long wharf a large coil of cable valued at $500 fell overboard and has not yet been recovered. Several attempts have been made to grapple for the sunken cable, but without success, the depth of the water and the soft mud bottom making it impossible to get at it with grappling irons. It is probable the United Engineering Works, to whom the cable belongs, will hire a diver to dive for it.

SANTA FE IMPROVEMENT CLUB WILL ATTEND

Eleven delegates were appointed recently to represent the Santa Fe Improvement club at the Equal Tax conference of the Alameda County Tax Association, which will be held in the near future. They are L. C. Levy, F. L. Shaw, W. E. Holcomb, August Wessell, H. A. Waterhouse, S. A. Harvey, James Gartland, C. E. Davis, J. A. Hyland, J. A. Monroe and Frank Burger.

The movement on the part of the association is in harmony with similar movements taken by many other clubs and civic organizations throughout the country in an effort to force the reduction of the tax rate by increasing property assessments and by equalizing the taxation of small property owners to correspond with that of big owners.

PASTOR DENIES THERE ARE WARRING FACTIONS

The rumor to the effect that the excavation work for the new $2000,000 First Presbyterian church, which will be located at Twenty-sixth and Broadway, has been stopped, was denied this afternoon by Rev. F. L. Goodspeed, pastor of the church. Despite the fact that the exterior design of the church has not as yet been decided upon by the building committee or the architect, there has been no change in the architecture of the structure, which will closely follow the early English Gothic style.

In an interview with Dr. Goodspeed he stated that there were no factions in the church as announced in one of the newspapers, regarding the contracts let and that he favored whatever outside ornaments his congregation and the committee agreed upon.

ANOTHER MAN STRUCK BY BERKELEY TRAIN

Another smash-up between train and vehicle was reported from Berkeley this afternoon when the authorities at the local receiving hospital were called upon to treat Ah Wong, a Chinese fruit peddler, for injuries following his being struck by a south-bound train shortly after noon. The Chinaman was crossing the track at the Prince street station when the train struck him. His injuries are confined to cuts and abrasions of the face and head which necessitated his treatment and retention at the receiving hospital. Ah Wong's home address is given as 2111 McKinley street, Berkeley.

The members also discussed the setting aside of a "Fire Prevention Day," preferably on April 18 of each year, as a day of education for the general public in the prevention of fires. C. Fred Burks, secretary of the board, declared that fifty per cent of the loss caused by fire in the United States annually, or $125,000,000 is preventable, and is is the aim of underwriters all over the country to instruct the public in ways to do away with this enormous yearly loss.

BURGLAR ALARM DISTURBS PEACE

The loss of a key to an electric burglar alarm, and the accidental setting off of the alarm in the store of A. Schlueter last night caused considerable difficulty to the police. Some months ago Schlueter had the burglar alarm installed in his store. It did not ring enough for the first six months to make any appreciable load on the batteries, but last night, while everything was quiet, the alarm started to make up for lost time.

Police Sergeant Fred Schroeder heard it and immediately rushed several policemen to the store. They surrounded it and then some of them entered and search for the burglar. He was not to be found, but the alarm went merrily on ringing. It rang for half an hour. Sergeant Schroeder then called up Schlueter and complained that his burglar alarm was disturbing the peace.

Schlueter telephoned back that he had lost his key to the alarm, and it was several hours before the alarm was stopped.

WHEAT MARKET IS ON UPWARD TILT

Slash in the Estimated Export Surplus Tends to Boost the Price.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—A new slashing of the estimated export surplus in the Argentine today caused the wheat market to have an upward tilt. Figures from an influential source put the total as low as 88,000,000 bushels. A forecast of continued cold in the United States helped the bulls.

The opening was ⅛ to ⅝c higher. May started at 100⅝ @100½ to 100½c, a gain of ⅛ to ⅜c@¼c and rose to 100⅝c.

The close was easy, with May ⅛@¼c lower at 100⅛.

Inability of the railroads to move corn promptly made that cereal strong. May opened a shade to ⅛@¼c up at 64⅞@64⅞c to 64⅞@65c, and rose to 65⅛c.

Closing prices were steady, with May ⅜c higher at 65⅛c.

Oats were firmer because of scrace offerings. May started ⅛⅛c higher at 49⅝c and went to 49½c.

Provisions sympathized with the upward tendency of quotations at the yards. First sales were a shade to 5c higher, with May $16.20 for pork; $9.55 for lard and $8.77½ for ribs.

Close: Wheat—May, $1.00⅛; July, 94⅞c@95c; September, 93⅝c.

Corn—January, 61½c; May and July, 65⅛c; September, 65½@65⅝⅝c.

Oats—January, 48⅞c; May, 49½c; July, 45¼c. September, 40⅝c.

Pork—January, $16; May, $16.45; July, $10.60 @10.62½.

Lard—September, $9.87½; January, $9.42½@$9.45; May, $9.65; July, $9.75.

Ribs—January, $8.65; May, $8.90; July, $8.95.

Rye—No. 2, 90c.

Barley—90c@$1.35.

Clover—$15@21.

BEARISH CAST TO WALL ST. DEALS

Longs Fail to Follow Up the Advantage They Gained Yesterday.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Speculative opinion was of a more bearish cast today and traders on the long side of the stock market failed to follow up the advantage they gained yesterday. Although the market derived some temporary strength from the bidding up of Lehigh Valley, and a few of the specialties, the effect was soon offset by aggressive bear selling and the list was heavy most of the morning. The attack was again centered on Union Pacific, and the lack of staunch support for this stock contributed toward the unsettlement of the general list.

London again sold stocks here, chiefly U. S. Steel and Union Pacific. The market rallied beebly, became very dull and again dipped sharply at midday. Many stocks ruled between 1 and 2 points below yesterday's final prices. Canadian Pacific lost 2⅜, Reading 2 and Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Chesapeake & Ohio, Amalgamated Copper, Ptah Copper, Interboro Metropolitan preferred and others a point or more. Western Union showed pronounced strength.

The low prices invited short covering and the rally was accelerated by the evidence of buying orders from inside sources. Coal stocks were the favorites in the recovery. Lehigh Valley mounted to $1.85⅝, or within ¼c of the early high price. Reading and U. P. also recovered a point each, but the industrials and specialties lagged considerably behind the railroads in the rally. Speculation became quiet on the recovery in prices, but there was no renewed evidence of weakness. Earlier declines wre reduced mostly to fractional proportions, with the recovery halting about midday between the highest and the lowest.

The market closed irregular. The tonic effect of the announcement that the Lehigh Valley directors would meet after 3 o'clock soon wore off and the list became weak, with Lehigh Valley leading the decline. The price broke 2 points from the best to $1.83½. Other stocks also receded to the lowest figures of the day, with business considerably more active on the down grade. Hasty covering strengthened some stocks in the final dealings.

Bonds were easy.

CAILLAUX TELLS WHY HE RESIGNED

PARIS, Jan. 11.—Premier Caillaux, who, with his entire cabinet, resigned last night, sent a letter to President Fallieres today, defending himself against the charges of undue interference in the Franco-German negotiations concerning Morocco which have been brought against him in several quarters. The agreement with Germany was drawn up by the cabinet acting together, the letter states, and the members always were unanimous.

The brusque withdrawal of Foreign Minister Deselves from the cabinet after the dramatic scene in the Senate committee, in which Premier Clemenceau took so prominent a part, produced, he writes to M. Fallieres, a gap which he was unable to fill. In consequence, the entire cabinet had resigned.

M. Caillaux's fellow ministers have addressed a letter to him couched in similar terms.

Egg Market in Nearby Counties.

PETALUMA, Jan. 11.—There was no change in the prices paid for eggs today, after receipt of transactions of the San Francisco Dairy and Egg exchange. Independent dealers and speculators paid 35½c for first grade eggs. The delivery was light, and if the present rain continues first grade eggs will be much scarcer than for some time past. The poultry market was dull. There is a fair trade in turkeys, but dealers claim that prices are too high for these birds to move to best advantage. There is also some demand for good broilers and fryers. Feed conditions remain unchanged.

SANTA CRUZ, Jan. 11.—There has been another slight advance in egg quotations, firsts climbing up to 40c per dozen and seconds to 35c, due to poultrymen holding back their supply on hand. Buyers are predicting a decline in price, as the recent mild rains have provided an abundance of green feed.

U. S. MINISTER ON RUSH TO NICARAGUA

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11.—To reach Nicaragua before what may culminate in another revolution, George T. Weitzell, the new Minister from the United States to Nicaragua, had a United Fruit steamer held four hours to enable him to make connection for Central America.

He arrived here from Washington on a belated train and immediately boarded a steamer which sailed at 2 o'clock. A serious row is brewing between the Nicaraguan army and the police of Managua, the capital, and it is said a number of police have been killed in minor conflicts recently. General Luis Mona, president-elect, is in command of the army which already has fired upon the police, and a serious outbreak between the Mena forces and the former Zelaya and Madriz adherents is expected hourly.

MUSICAL PROGRAM UNUSUALLY GOOD

The San Francisco Symphony Orchestra Plays in Concert Here Tomorrow.

The San Francisco Symphony Orchestra will make its premier appearance in Oakland, in fact its premier appearance away from its home city, at Ye Liberty playhouse tomorrow afternoon. Director Henry Hadley has arranged a most excellent popular program for this occasion, and in line with the idea of the Musical Association of San Francisco, within the reach of all of the people.

In its short existence this orchestra has demonstrated that it will shortly take its place among the finest orchestras in the world and its donors expect that by the exposition year the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra will be a big feature of the international festivities.

As is well known, the orchestra is maintained by citizens of both San Francisco and Oakland, with an object of giving the best in music to the people of these cities. Wonderful success has already rewarded their efforts for at home the capacity of the spacious Cort theater is tested every time Hadley and his players make their appearance.

The fine program that will be given tomorrow afternoon includes the overture to "Merry Wives of Windsor," which opens the entertainment. Prominent on the program will be the stirring march movement from the Tschaikowsky Pathetique (No. 6.) symphony, which is the most beautiful passage in the great Russian's masterpiece. MacDowell's song, "To a Wild Rose," and Sibelius' "Valse Triste" are two dainty and pleasing numbers. The Bach air on G. String, played by the first violins, Liszt's "Liebestraum," and Victor Herbert's Irish Rhapsody will also be played. The latter number is presented for the first time in Oakland.

FREIGHT CLERKS JOIN RANKS OF STRIKERS

BOSTON, Jan. 11.—The addition of sixty-five steamship freight clerks to the ranks of the 2800 striking longshoremen, and the discharge of sixty strikebreakers by the Allan line, were the only developments today in the strike which has seriously interfered with steamship service at this port.

About 35,000 freight handlers and freight clerks have voted to strike when the district assembly of the Knights of Labor issues the call, but the order was not given today. It was said tonight that overtures are being made to bring about an adjustment of the difficulties.

FORGERIES AND THEFTS LOOT BANK OF $300,000

ALBION, Mich., Jan. 11.—New discoveries made by Frank L. Irwin, manager of the wrecked Albion National Bank, show the bank's loss through forgeries and thefts, according to Irwin may reach $300,000. Sheets from a bank ledger secreted in Cashier H. M. Dearing's desk showed that the bank had deposits of $400,000, instead of $211,000. It is also said that the known forgeries of the Dearings now total $180,000.

Depositors have consulted legal advice to determine whether criminal proceedings shall be started against other persons connected with the institution.

Worthy President George F. Evans and Vice-president E. Waldie will give medals to those who bring the highest number of new members during the present session.

GREAT ORPHEUM ROAD SHOW HAS DRAWING POWER

MISS AMELIA CLAIRE.

That significant sign "free list entirely suspended during the Orpheum road show" hangs in the lobby of the Oakland Orpheum these days in full view of the big crowds that surge into the theater night and day.

That sign is used once a year, during the annual visit of the great Orpheum road show. The crush is always tremendous during the road show season. Theater goers understand pretty well that the road show brand of vaudeville is about the finest and most enticing that is purveyed during the year, hence the over flow in the theater.

The reigning French beauty, Simone De Beryl, is creating a sensation at the Orpheum with her marvelous beauty poses. This act is one of the General Manager Beck's European importations. He secured it in Paris when it was a feature of one of the theaters along the boulevards. Nothing like it has ever been at the Orpheum.

Another great Orpheum act that is a novelty is that of the Eight Palace Girls, from the London Palace. These girls were never out of England before. They are the pick of the expert dancing girls of London. Their stage setting and costumes are beautiful. their movements have all the grace of wood nymphs, and yet the girls dance with the precision of perfect martinets.

LAUGHTER RAMPANT.

The crowds roar with laughter at the fun making of Keller Mack and Frank Orth in, their farce "The Wrong Hero." Mr. Mack sings his own songs and each one of them is a big winner.

Seymour Felix and Amelia Cairo give a series of imitations of stage celebrities that are startling and true to life.

A great dramatic sketch "Honor Among Thieves" has a star place on the program and well deserves it. It is a bit of drama of the very first rank and played in faultless style by four clever actors.

Ray Samuels, a character singing comedienne who scores a hit at every performance is one of the road show stars.

An exhibition of color photography is given by Stanley McGinnis and this feature is, to many, one of the most interesting acts on the bill.

Charles F. Semon, known as "The Narrow Fellow" has a lively combination of fun and music that seems to catch the fancy of the crowds.

The motion pictures and the orchestra concert are unusually fine this week and round out a program that quite naturally packs the house to the doors, afternoon and night.

FRUIT PEST BILL IS CONSIDERED BY SOLONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The entire California delegation met yesterday at Senator Perkins' office to consider the bill providing for prohibiting importation of fruit infected with pests and for inspection of imported nursery stock.

Every effort will be made to secure the enactment of a strong law protecting the American fruit industry. The bill was amended to empower the secretary of agriculture to prohibit absolutely the importation of infected fruit from any foreign country or insular possession or the transportation of such fruit from one state to another. It is also made a misdemeanor to import such fruit. Nursery stock must be inspected at point of departure and also at point of delivery. Representatives Kahn, Hayes and Kent were appointed a subcommittee to push the bill in the house.

CAXTON CHAUCER SELLS FOR $5000 AT AUCTION

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—A Caxton edition of Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales," dated 1477, which was the fourth or fifth book printed in England, brought $5000, the highest bid for any book at yesterday's session of the Hoe library auction. George D. Smith of this city bought the book.

W. K. Hill of Chicago paid $1850 for a Caesar printed in Rome in 1469, and Julius Condheim, a German dealer, paid $1000 for a copy of "Cicero's Epistles to Brutus," printed in 1470. Yesterday's bids amounted in all to $34,202.

FINDS OLD PROSPECTOR DEAD.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 11.—The relief party sent December 30 by the government agent at Telegraph Creek, B. C., to rescue Ed Ehrlich, a 60-year-old man, who had been reported dying from scurvy in his cabin on Canyon creek, a tributary of the Taku river, returned last Sunday and reported finding Ehrlich dead.

How a Simple Paste Will Remove Hairs

Many beauty specialists now employ a simple powder known as delatone for the removal of superfluous hairs and whitening the skin.

Persons wishing to remove fuzz or hairy growths from the skin without employing the painful and costly electric needle should buy an original package of delatone from the druggist and with a little mix enough water to form a thick paste. Spread this on the skin's surface and after two or three minutes rub off and wash. You will find the hairs are gone while the skin is left white and smooth.

While delatone costs a dollar a package, it is really the cheapest and most satisfactory thing one can use, as it is unfailing.

WEDS FIRST THEN IS TAKEN TO JAIL

Accused Embezzler Promises to Be Good if Married to Lady-love.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11. — Detective Thomas Daly played the roll of cupid in connection with bringing to this city this morning Morris Goldberg, salesman for a local jewelry firm charged with embezzlement.

"I don't like jail," said Morris, "and I will fight you to a finish unless you agree that I can be married before I go back to San Francisco and stand trial. I hate prison but I love a certain girl, and if you will fix the wedding for me, I will be the most model prisoner you ever had."

This was the ultimatum given by Goldberg to the officer when the latter appeared in Portland to bring him to this city, and found he had decided to fight extradition. The detective wired his chief and was told to come back without the prisoner, but decided to use his persuasive powers, and so learned of the love affair.

Goldberg agreed to come without legal entanglement if he could bring his bride with him and so Daly took him out of jail, obtained a marriage license for him and then acted as best man when the ceremony was performed. The bashful bride guarded one side of Goldberg and the detective the other when they arrived. Goldberg is accused of embezzling $1600 in jewelry from Max Morris, 621 Kearny street.

'TWO OLD MEN' ARE THE BROADWAY FEATURE

A heart story of manly affection, without maudlin affectation, and splendidly acted and staged, is offered at the Broadtheater. Joe, an old musician, is discharged from the orchestra because of his age. He goes to a cheap rooming house and discovers that Jim, another old, broken-down musician, has the adjoining room. Joe becomes sick, and to get the medicine prescribed by the doctor Jim pawns his violin. While convalescent Joe plays on his cello, but not hearing an answering harmony from the next room, as has been the case previously, he raps on the wall. Getting an answering rap, he plays again, but still there is no musical response. He goes to Jim's room and learns of his sacrifice, and also that Jim is hungry. So that they may both have food he sends Jim out to pawn his cello, although it grieves him sorely to part with the instrument. Years before Joe's daughter had married a man against her father's wishes, and father and daughter had been estranged since. Her husband had prospered, and she would have been happy but for the thought that she had lost her father's love. She discovers the cello in the pawn shop window and traces Joe. A reconciliation takes place and Joe goes to live with her and her husband, and the pawned instruments are redeemed and given back to their respective owners. Joe is happy awhile, but pines for Jim. Jim mourns the loss of his comrade, and is pleasantly surprised by a visit from Joe. When the daughter and her husband discover the situation they make both old men supremely happy by inviting Jim also to become a permanent member of their household, and the story closes with both old men playing a duet together by the fireside, a picture of perfect joy.

Several other new feature pictures, accompanied by selected music, will complete one of the most attractive programs that has yet been shown at this amusement resort.

ANDERSON NOT READY TO ACCEPT NEW HONOR

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Because Alden Anderson, politician and banker, was elected president of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce is not taken by him as conclusive evidence that he will fill that position. Several days ago he was importuned to accept this honor, but declined.

When called by telephone Anderson stated that he could not agree to accept unless after a conference the directors of the chamber are convinced that he has the time to devote to the position. Anderson was elected because he is looked upon as the man for this position, who can unite the interests that have not been entirely harmonious.

GOODYEAR MAN HELD UP ON BARBARY COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Harry Raymond, of Goodyear, California, was held up on the Barbary Coast early this morning and knocked to the ground by a lone highwayman. He screamed and before the thug could go through his pockets, Patrolmen Cameron and Coleman, with Special Officer Kauffman, came from different directions. The robber's escape was cut off and he was taken into custody and charged with attempted robbery at the city prison. He gave his name as James G. Harris, and his occupation as that of a waiter.

DEFICIENCY DELAYS NATION'S CENSUS WORK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The discharge of 1100 clerks from the census office today because of the lack of funds has crippled the thirteenth decennial census work, according to Director Durand's report to Secretary Nagel, and it will be impossible to complete a number of important subjects by June 30, the date set for the publication of all the results.

With the reduced force the director says the following topics can not be finished: Occupation statistics, characteristics of foreign born population, tenure of homes, defective and delinquent classes, animal products, of farms and animals sold and slaughtered.

The cause of the reductions in force was the recent action of Congress in making a deficiency appropriation of $500,000 instead of $1,000,000, as requested by the census office.

SACRAMENTAN SLAIN BY YAQUIS IN MEXICO

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Charles W. Haines, formerly of Placerville, writes friends here of the murder by Yaqui Indians in Sonora, Mex., of Robert S. Kies, formerly of Sacramento.

Haines and Kies left Sacramento together several months ago with the intention of making a trip into Mexico. Both had been employed here by the Standard Oil company.

Kies has a sister here, Mrs. Charles Gaylord. His father, George O. Kies, was formerly editor of the Placerville Democrat.

CANADIANS ENTERTAINED.

SAN JOSE, Jan. 11.—Delayed by storms in the Rocky mountains, 185 Western Canada excursionists on their first annual trip to California cities, were entertained here yesterday. A trolley ride over the "Blossom Route" to Saratoga and Los Gatos and automobile jaunts to points of interest about this city featured the afternoon's entertainment. Last night a reception, at which several boosters spoke, was held at the Vendome Hotel, followed by an elaborate dance.

Corns Cured Easy

Try "Gets-It," GUARANTEED to Cure.

Ouch! That Corn.

Here is a corn cure on a new plan. It shrivels up the corn, wart, callous or bunion, separates them from the true flesh, the corn comes off, and there you are, with feet that feel positively glorious; corn-free once more as they used to be in your "barefoot days."

The most remarkable feature is, that "GETS-IT," the guaranteed cure, does not harm or turn raw or irritate the healthy flesh as other preparations do. It is as safe as water. No more plasters, no more bandages, no more salves. Just as easy.

"GETS-IT" is sold at drug stores at 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

DOG TEAMS TO BE USED IN TRIP UP MOUNTAIN

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—With the summit of Mount McKinley as its goal, an expedition headed by Prof. Herschel C. Parker will leave New York in a few days. The expedition will have as its station for supplies a trading post on the Susitna river, about 150 miles from the base of the mountain.

Professor Parker will carry a hypsometer, by means of which he hopes to be able to determine the atmospheric pressure at the boiling point. He will be accompanied by Belmore Browne of the Parker-Browne expedition of 1910, Merl Lavey of Seattle and Arthur Aten of Valdez, Alaska, both experts in handling dog teams.

"I expect to be in the snow two or three months," Parker said today. "After leaving Talkeetus, an Indian camp not far from our base of supplies, we expect to make thirty miles a day for the first 100 miles. The final dash to the base of Mount McKinley will be harder and ten miles will be about the average. It is a hard trip, but I think there is a chance that we will reach the summit."

JUDGES SWORN IN.

SANTA FE, N. M., Jan. 11.—The three members of the new State Supreme Court, C. J. Roberts, Richard H. Hanna and Frank W. Parker, were sworn in last night and established their terms of office by lot. Roberts drew the short five-year term, and according to the agreement, becomes chief justice. Hanna drew the seven-year term, and Parker the nine-year term.
